Additions to Newman High

BELOW: The Newman sign built under the supervision of Don O'Connor and Dave Barnes was a great addition to the appearance of the school.

ABOVE: Mr. Allan Eckelmann and Miss Anne Denney are the two new faculty members that Newman welcomed this year.

LEFT: Cardinal Newman became a permanent fixture this year in the school's main lobby.

The theme of the book this year is "Days of Our Knights". This theme was chosen by the Knight-life staff to try in every way possible to portray the everyday happenings as well as the major events in the lives of the students and staff at Newman.

We have tried to incorporate the theme into every page of the book in some way, whether it be through the photos, the copy, the captions or the headlines. We hope that as you flip through the pages you will understand the various ways that we have tried to incorporate the theme "Days of Our Knights" into this book.

We hope that this yearbook will be a good source of memories of your days at Newman and that you will cherish it for many years to come.

Students' Morning Routines Vary

All of the Knights' days begin with the dreaded sound of the alarm clock telling them that another school day is about to begin.

Everyone has their own routine that they go through every morning to get ready for school.

Some people, such as students from Rockwell and Clear Lake, must start their day earlier because of the distance they must travel to get to school.

People who catch an early bus must also rise early to avoid missing it.

RIGHT: Sr. Dennis is caught taking an afternoon snooze.

The Coming and Going of Knights

There are many different ways that Newman students can get to and from school.

Many students take advantage of the city bus service that covers almost all of the areas of Mason City. There is also a bus that travels to and from Rockwell for students that live in that area.

People who have their driver's license and have access to a car drive to and from school. The majority of those who drive are juniors and seniors because of the legal driving age.

The students who live close to Newman can travel to school on foot.

People also get to school by having parents drive, by car pooling, and by riding their bikes.

ABOVE: Kathy Greenlee, Lisa Hutchison and Lynn Rohrer find car pooling an economical way to get to school.

ABOVE: Scott McClung, Julie Fritz, Bob Halloran, and Annette Rasmussen proceed into school after their morning bus ride.

Time Before School Can Be Advantageous

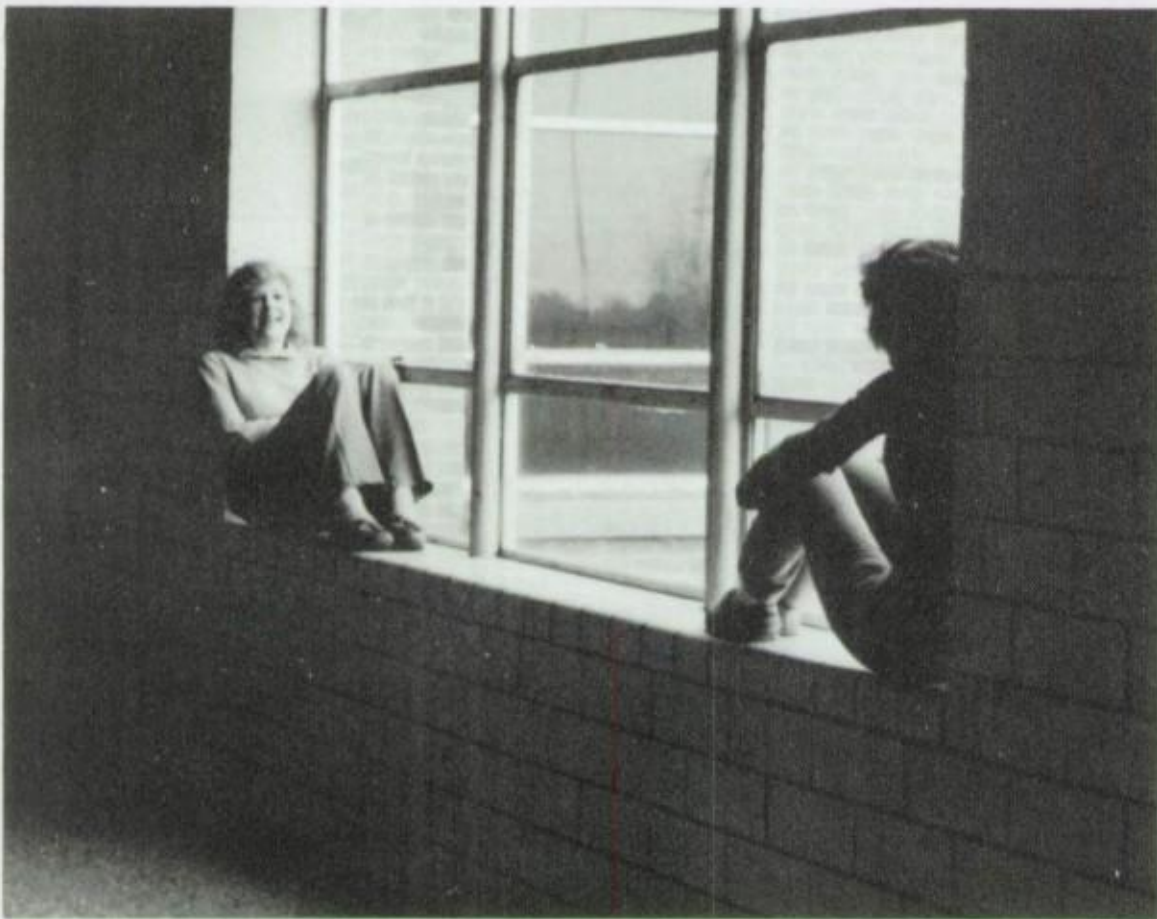

There are many Newman students who arrive at school before the bell rings at 8:20. People choose to come to school early for many different reasons. The most common purposes for arriving early are to work on homework, to enjoy a doughnut before a hectic morning of classes, or simply to visit with other early arrivers.

Early morning Mass is held throughout the year for those who wish to attend.

During wrestling season, the wrestlers must arrive early to weigh-in. After the weigh-ins, the boys are provided with breakfast in the cafeteria served by mothers of the team members.

ABOVE: Tammy Ramey and Val Nelson take advantage of time before school for some conversation.

RIGHT: Teresa Fitzgerald indulges in a doughnut and a carton of milk in the early morning hours before school.

Students Dread Driver's Ed

English Stresses Growth in Communication Basics

BELOW: Juniors in Mr. Peter's room seem to be enjoying what they're studying.

ABOVE: Freshmen get some time before class ends to visit with friends or to sit quietly and rest.

College or Careers Emphasized

ABOVE: Janine Taft selects an interesting book to read during English class.

Growth for the individual student continues to be the goal of the English Department at Newman. Courses are designed to aid students in either a college-bound or in a career-oriented curriculum. Some courses included are Vocational English, Research Seminar, Journalism, Speech, and Composition. Teachers are encouraged to give individualized attention and to help students strengthen the basic skills of reading, speech, and written communication. Department members include Mr. Peters, Mr. Vega, Mr. Augustine, Mrs. Stoltenberg, and Sr. Beth.

RIGHT: Mr. Peters finds it easy to lecture with a podium nearby.

Science Classes May Help

The instructors in the Science Dept. are Sr. Dennis, and Mr. Zoellner.

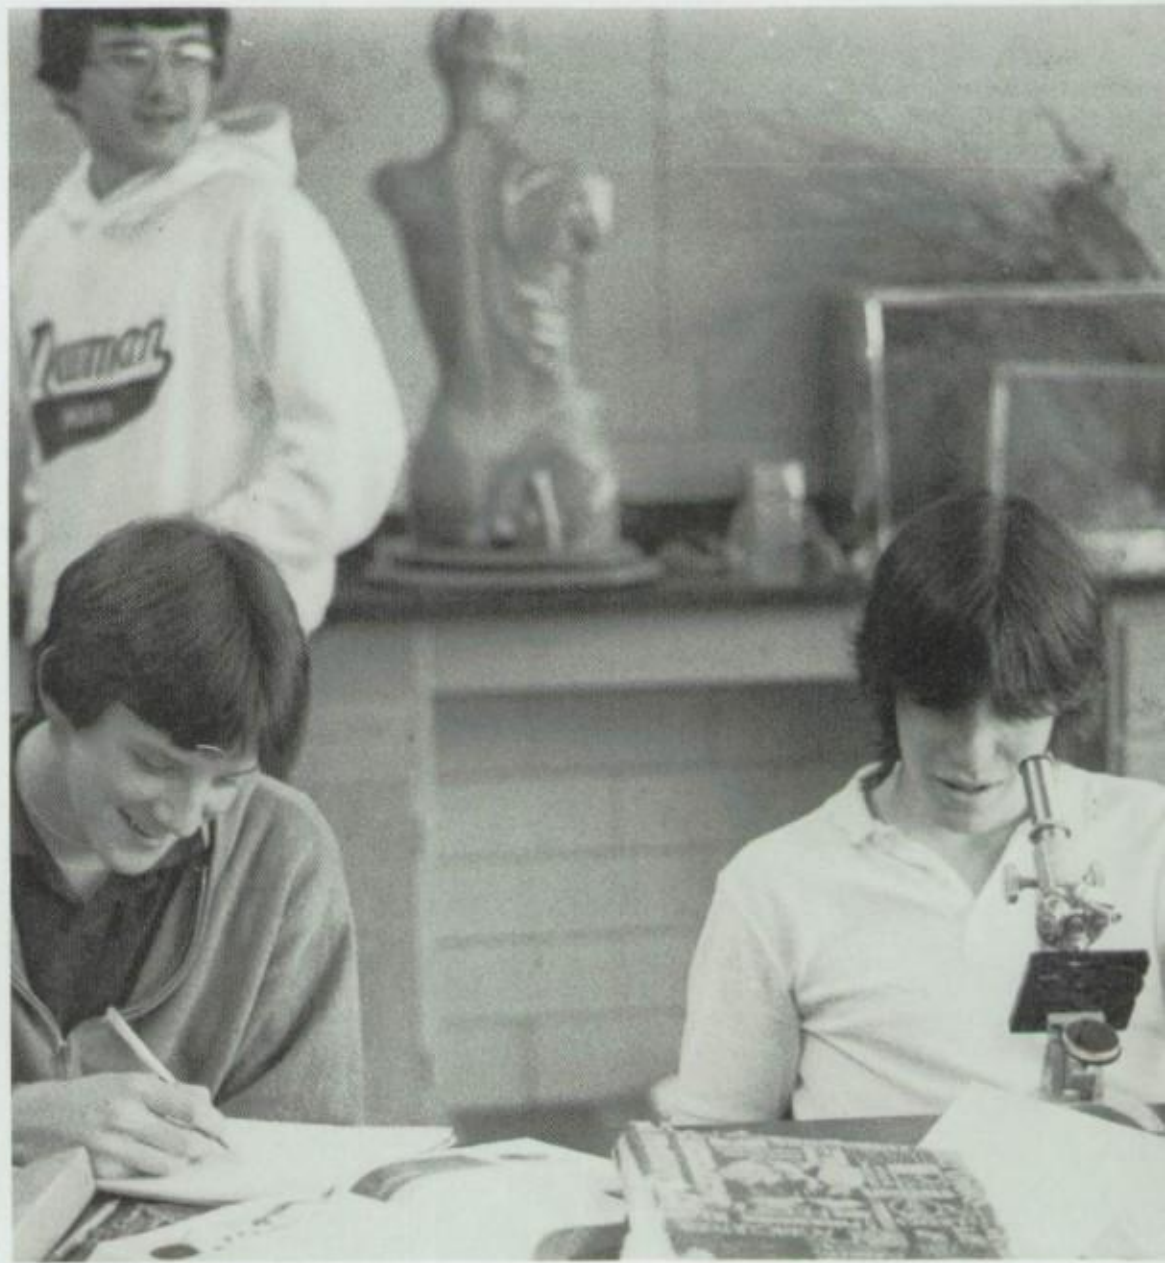

1½ years, (6 credits), of science are required. Freshmen are required to take Physical Science, (a semester class). Sophomores are required to take Biology, (a year long class).

Although only two years of science courses are required, many students choose to take more. Taking more years of science can help the student who wishes to pursue a career in one of the sciences, or a profession such as medicine.

Determine Future Careers

The Business Department is headed by Sr. Julia Wingert. The business classes offered were Typing, which teaches proper use of the keyboard, and how to type different types of business forms; Business Law, which covers laws, crimes and laws; General Business which gives backgrounds of many businesses, and Accounting which teaches how to handle financial record keeping.

RIGHT: Student teacher, Miss Carolyn Short, lectures from the overhead.

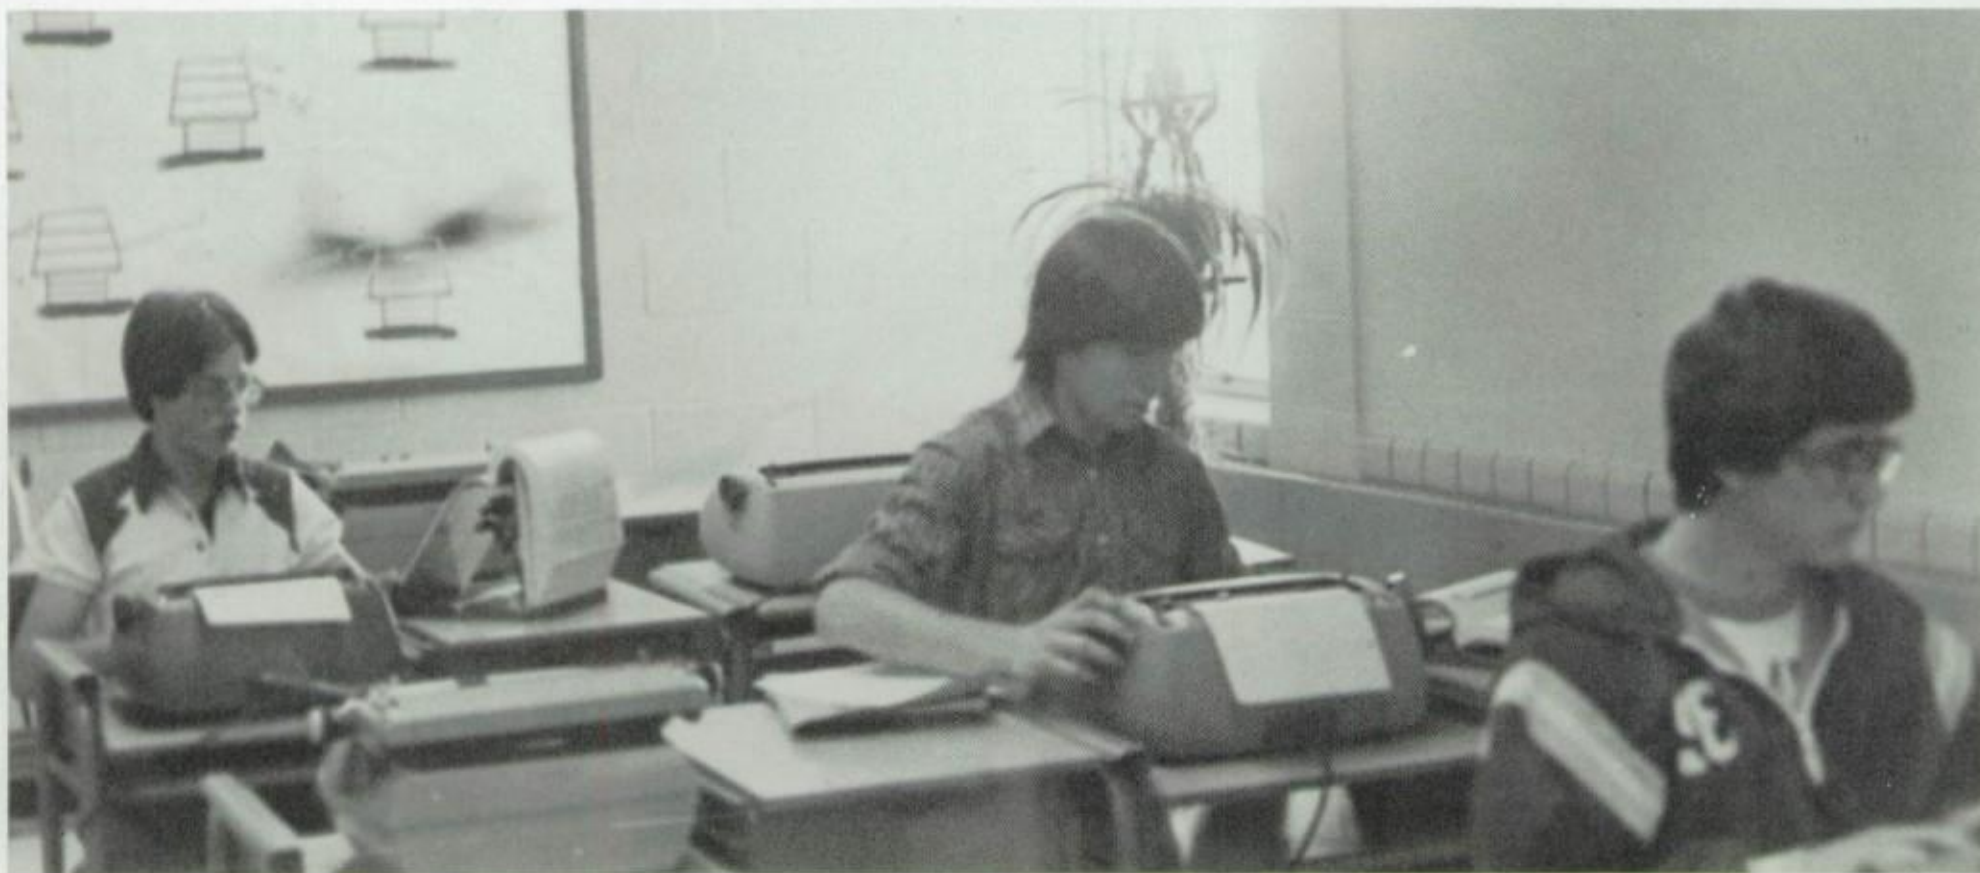

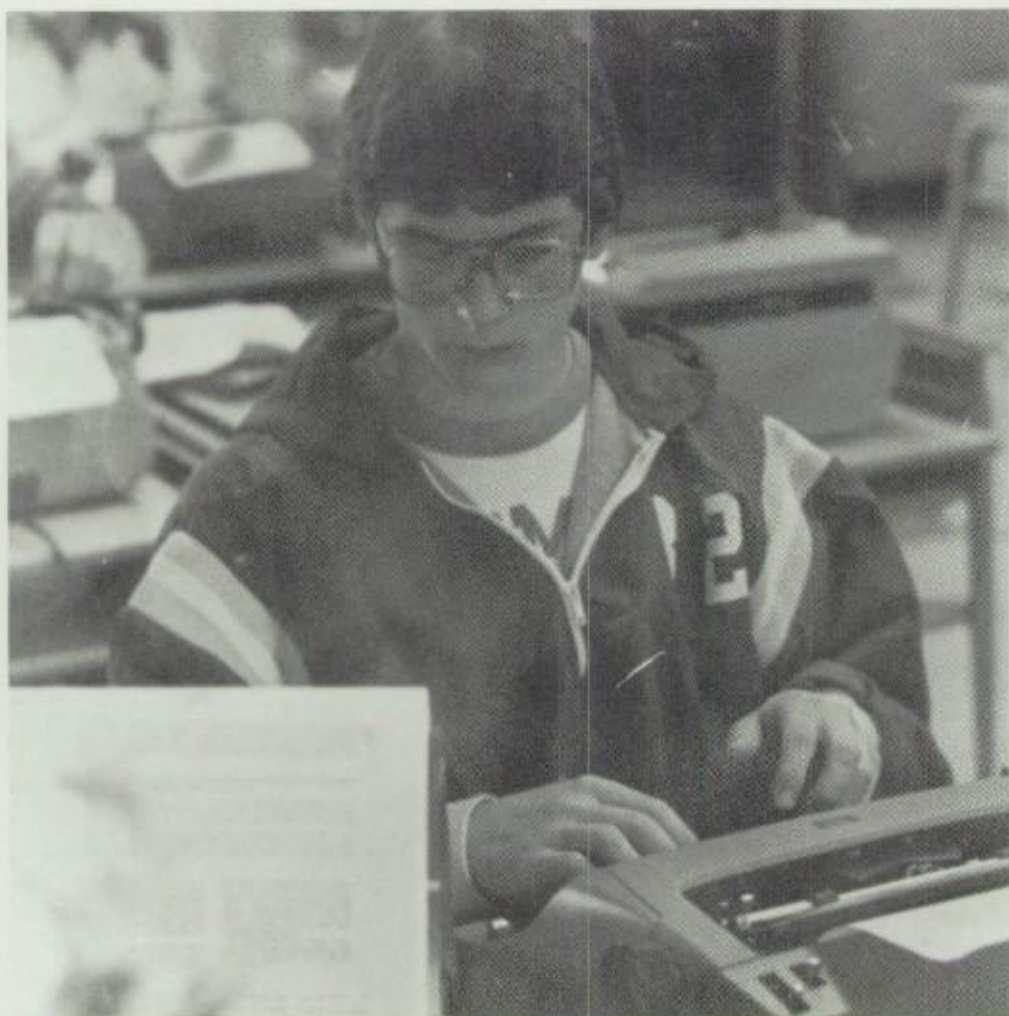

Business Ed Students Sharpen Their Skills

RIGHT: Kim Shaffer, Terri Rottinghaus, and Paul Rothamel work on their Accounting together.

Singers Take Part

in Many Events

The Newman Freshman and Concert Choirs are directed by Mr. Jeff Stearns. Both groups worked hard throughout the year to put on various events such as the operetta, "H.M.S. Pinafore," and the Christmas Concert. Choir members earn two credits per year, although it is to be changed to the full four credits in future years. Members can participate in various festivals, solo contests, and small group contests.

Concert Band Serves as Many

The Newman band, directed by Charles Cooper, has been described as serving as many bands throughout the year.

Pep band plays at all pep assemblies and at home varsity athletic events. The pit band plays at musicals, jazz band performs for various occasions.

The group from which all these groups come, is the Newman Concert band. They perform several concerts through the year including a concert at Christmas, the Spring concert in May, and graduation.

Bands Throughout the Year

Fund Raisers Help Improve Newman High Cafeteria

Rosemary Chodur, the food director at Newman, and Hilda Schwartz, her assistant and mother, have provided students with hot nutritious lunches as well as doughnuts and rolls in the mornings throughout the year.

Lunch prices for the 1982-83 year were 85¢ daily and $4.00 weekly.

Mrs. Chodur, with some help from her family, organized two chili suppers with proceeds going to the cafeteria fund.

The suppers were held before home basketball games and featured all the homemade chili you could eat, vegetable strips, beverages, and ice cream or cinnamon rolls. There was a turnout of over 130 people at each supper.

Mrs. Chodur wants to use the money to buy furniture and equipment for the cafeteria.

By purchasing this equipment the students would have a more pleasant place to eat and the boosters and others would have a better setting to hold fund raisers and other functions.

Social Studies Explore

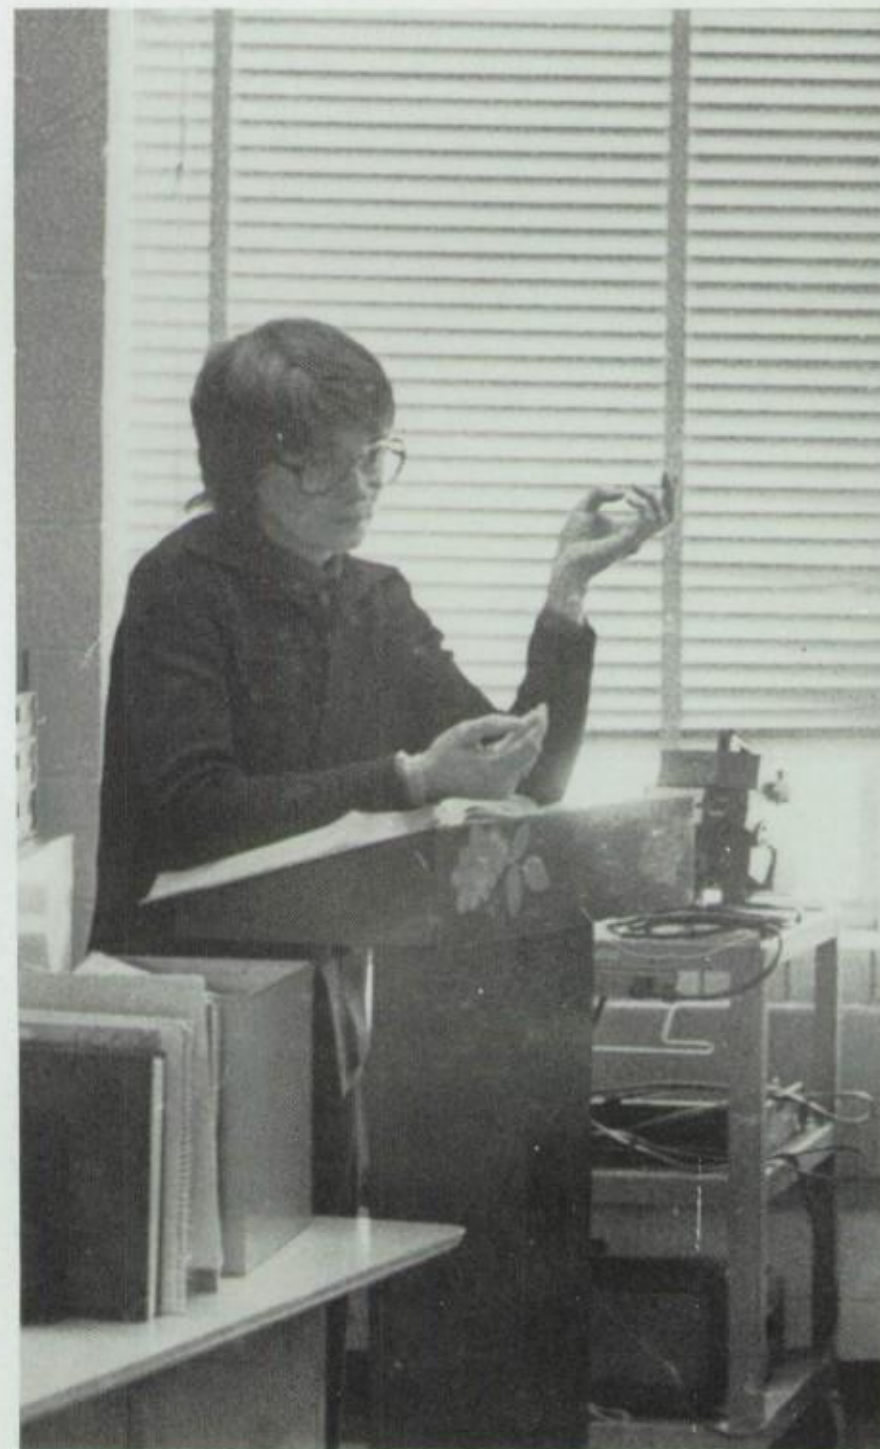

ABOVE: Junior American History students listen attentively to a lecture during class.

The area of social studies covers a wide range of courses. These courses are psychology, economics and consumer economics, geography, and sociology. The economics classes are courses for seniors only, and are required to graduate. The other courses named are optional, and all of these are semester courses only. Mr. Eckelmann teaches these social studies classes.

In the Economics classes, students put on ice cream sundae sales and raffles to show how certain types of businesses operate.

Mrs. Petersen teaches World History to freshmen, American History to juniors, and Government class to seniors. All of these are classes that are required for graduation. World History and American History are year long classes while government class lasts only a semester.

ABOVE: Mrs. Petersen leads her class in discussion.

LEFT: Miss Baker, a student-history teacher, seems to be stressing an important point to her class.

Many Aspects of Life

Religion Offers Spiritual Opportunities

ABOVE: It looks as if the seniors in Sr. Beth's fourth period religion class are taking advantage of a few spare moments to enjoy one another's company.

BELOW: Fr. Thompson seems to be talking about an important issue in his religion class.

Newman's Religion Department, headed by Sr. Beth and Father Thompson, organizes many events throughout the year for students, although the one thing that all students take part in is religion classes, taught by Sr. Beth, and Fr. Thompson.

All grades are required to take a full year of religion classes. The classes were held 3 days a week this year on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Some of the events that are organized by the Religion Department are class renewals, and T.E.C., (Teens Encounter Christ), for senior students who sign up to spend a weekend with a group of other Catholic high school students and share a religious experience.

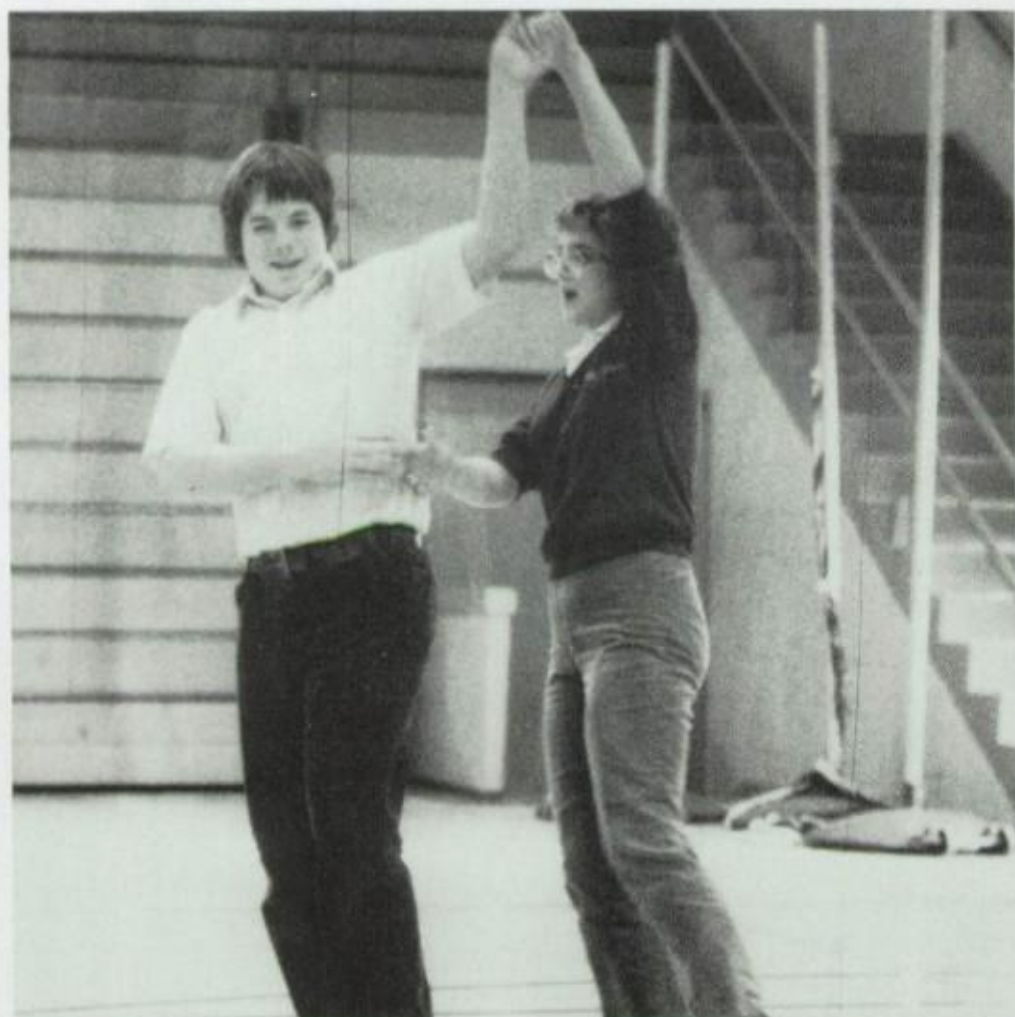

The department organizes all of the school liturgical services throughout the year.

Many Skills are Strengthened

LEFT: No, it's not the stars of Saturday Night Fever, it's just Miss Yount teaching Don Cahalan a few steps.

ABOVE: John Currier and Deb Chodur seem to have all the right moves to the "Hustle".

RIGHT: Jody Gaubatz pumps some iron in the Racquet Club weight room.

in P.E. Classes

Physical Education, a required course for all grades, was held on Mondays and Tuesdays this year.

Some of the activities that students participated in were racquetball, volleyball, table tennis, badminton, frisbee golf, gymnastics, dance, bowling, and a basketball course.

Students seemed to enjoy these activities, and they will be able to use their acquired skills in later life.

LEFT: Dirk Thompson hopes he gets a low score as he throws his frisbee in Frisbee Golf.

Math Courses Provide

Math courses at Newman are taught by Mrs. Carlson, Mr. Nyhus, and Sr. Dennis. The courses offered are General Math, Consumer Math, Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, and Math IV.

Two years (8 credits) of math courses are required to graduate.

Students who plan to go on to college are encouraged to take as many Math courses as possible because jobs in the area of computer science and engineering are becoming more and more available.

RIGHT: Mr. Nyhus helps out Chris Lindsley with a math problem.

ABOVE: "I never knew math could be this hard!" Amy Samson has a surprised look on her face as she and Kathy Greenlee work on Algebra II.

Five Valuable Home Ec. Courses Offered

RIGHT: Bill Halloran and Monica Dunbar attempt to whip up a tasty dish in Foods class.

BELOW: Anne Ermer sews away as Michelle Montang uses her time to do some stitching.

The Home Ec. dept. offers five different classes.

In Housing class, students study interior and exterior parts of the house and floor plans.

Singles Living class teaches basic things about living alone.

Child Growth studies the development of infants and small children.

Clothing class teaches about various colors and the latest fashions. This class teaches sewing techniques and how to improve sewing skills. Foods class gives students the opportunity to experiment with new recipes, to learn and improve cooking skills and to learn about the four food groups.

These classes are beneficial to just about everyone since they cover things most people will want to do or have to do or deal with some day.

Art Students Undertake Many Projects

ABOVE: Miss Denney is ready to advise John Currier as he creates.

Students that are interested in art can take Art 1,2,3, or 4 at Newman. Miss Anne Denny, one of the new teachers this year, is the instructor.

Throughout the year the students studied all the aspects of drawing, all types of painting, they worked with clay, stained glass, calligraphy, and scratchboard projects.

The art dept. created the entire set for the school operetta, "H.M.S. Pinafore".

Art is an area in which many students select as a career. There are many areas of art a person can go into. There are various scholarships offered by colleges to students interested in majoring in art.

Students Benefit From Foreign and Classical Languages

RIGHT: Lisa Hutchison patiently waits for Mr. Vega to help her.

Spanish class, taught by Mr. Vega is one of the foreign languages taught at Newman. Spanish students may take 4 full years of Spanish if they choose to. In Spanish class, students work on vocabulary words, lesson projects, and translate a story at the end of each chapter in their texts.

High school students are being encouraged more and more to study some foreign language before entering college. Many people find that knowing another language helps them in their college studies. Many colleges are requiring a certain number of foreign language credits in order to get a degree.

Several Spanish students sold candy bars to earn money for a trip they took to Mexico over spring break.

The other language taught at Newman is Latin. Fr. Ressler teaches this year long course individually to interested students. This class is not taken as much by students.

RIGHT: Vicki Thul seeks Mr. Vega's assistance while she works on an assignment.

Computers class, taught by Mrs. Carlson, is a class that is becoming ever more popular and proving to be very beneficial in today's highly computerized society.

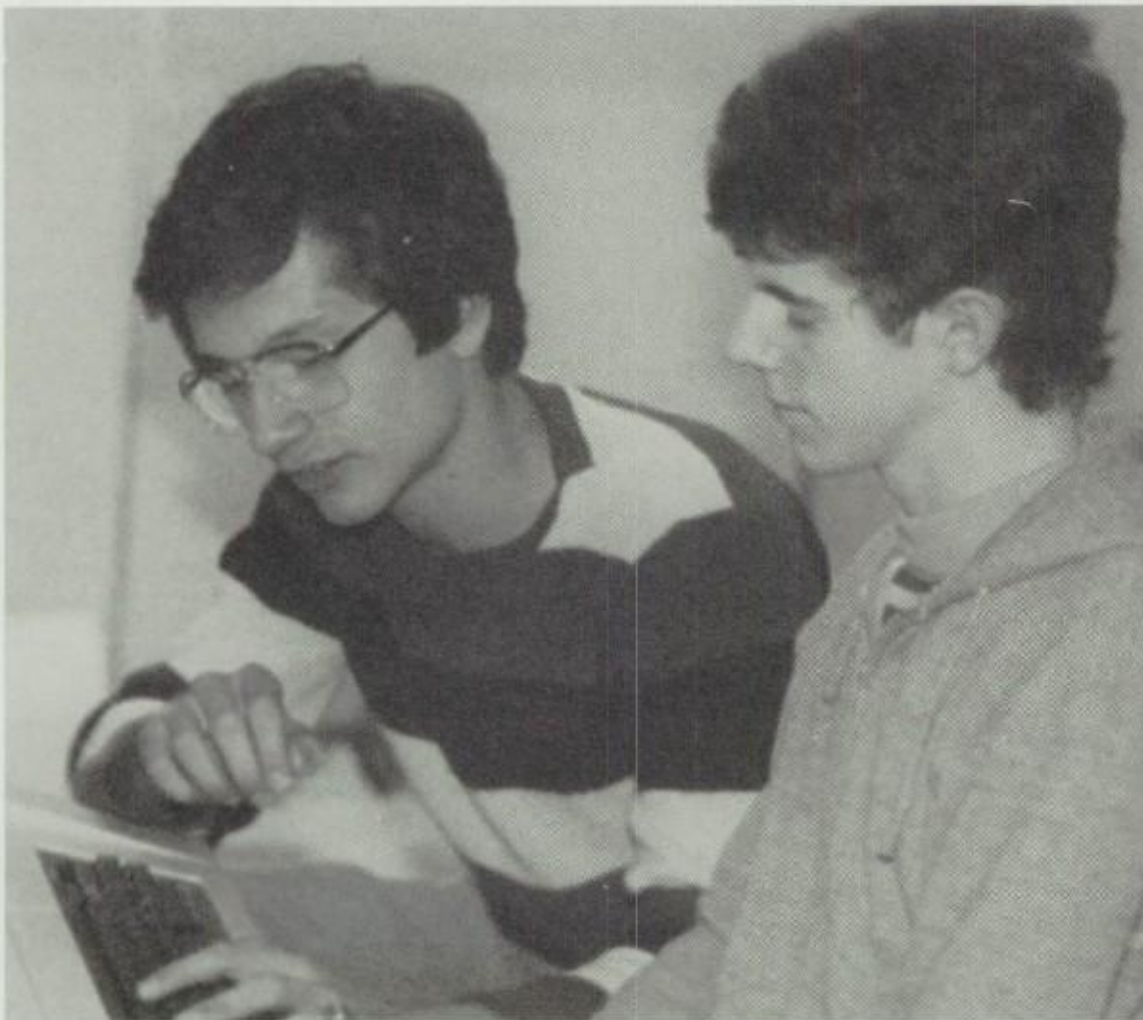

In the class students learn about two types of computer systems which are: 1) Time share (deci-writer) and 2) Self-contained (Apple II). Students learn how to construct a flow chart and learn how to run the computers.

Once students master the technique, they can participate in contests, such as the Wartburg Math Field Day held in March.

Math club is an organization that computer students, as well as other math students who enjoy using their skills and sharing them with other students, can be a part of.

Computer Course Gains Popularity

RIGHT: Craig Hestness does some work on the Apple II.

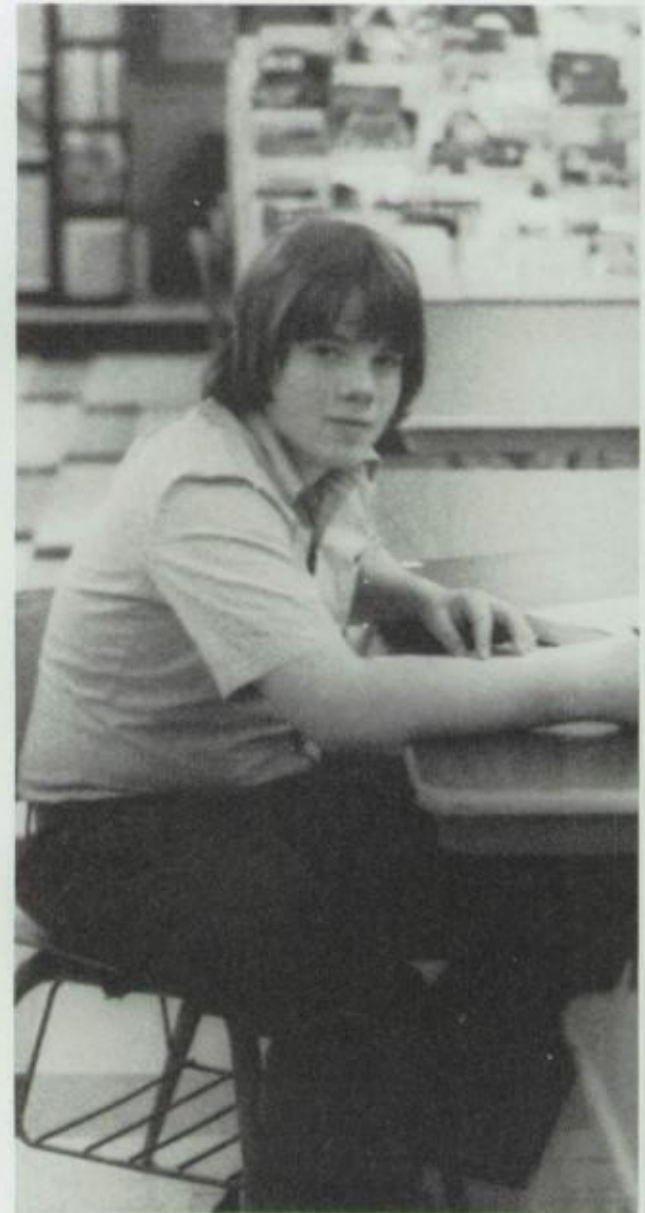

Free Time Eases Students

One of the brighter spots of just about every student's school day, besides lunch period and 3:05 dismissal, is their free period or structure period.

Freshmen and sophomore students are required to report to an assigned teacher for structured study hall. Juniors and seniors have the privilege of having one free period that they can spend in the cafeteria, the library, or outside during nice weather.

Juniors and seniors are assigned to structured study hall if they have more than one free, have a discipline problem, or are having problems in a class.

Most students take advantage of this free time to finish homework, although some students find it a good time to relax and prepare themselves for the rest of their day.

RIGHT: Mike Klein catches a glimpse of the paper while he spends his free time in the cafeteria.

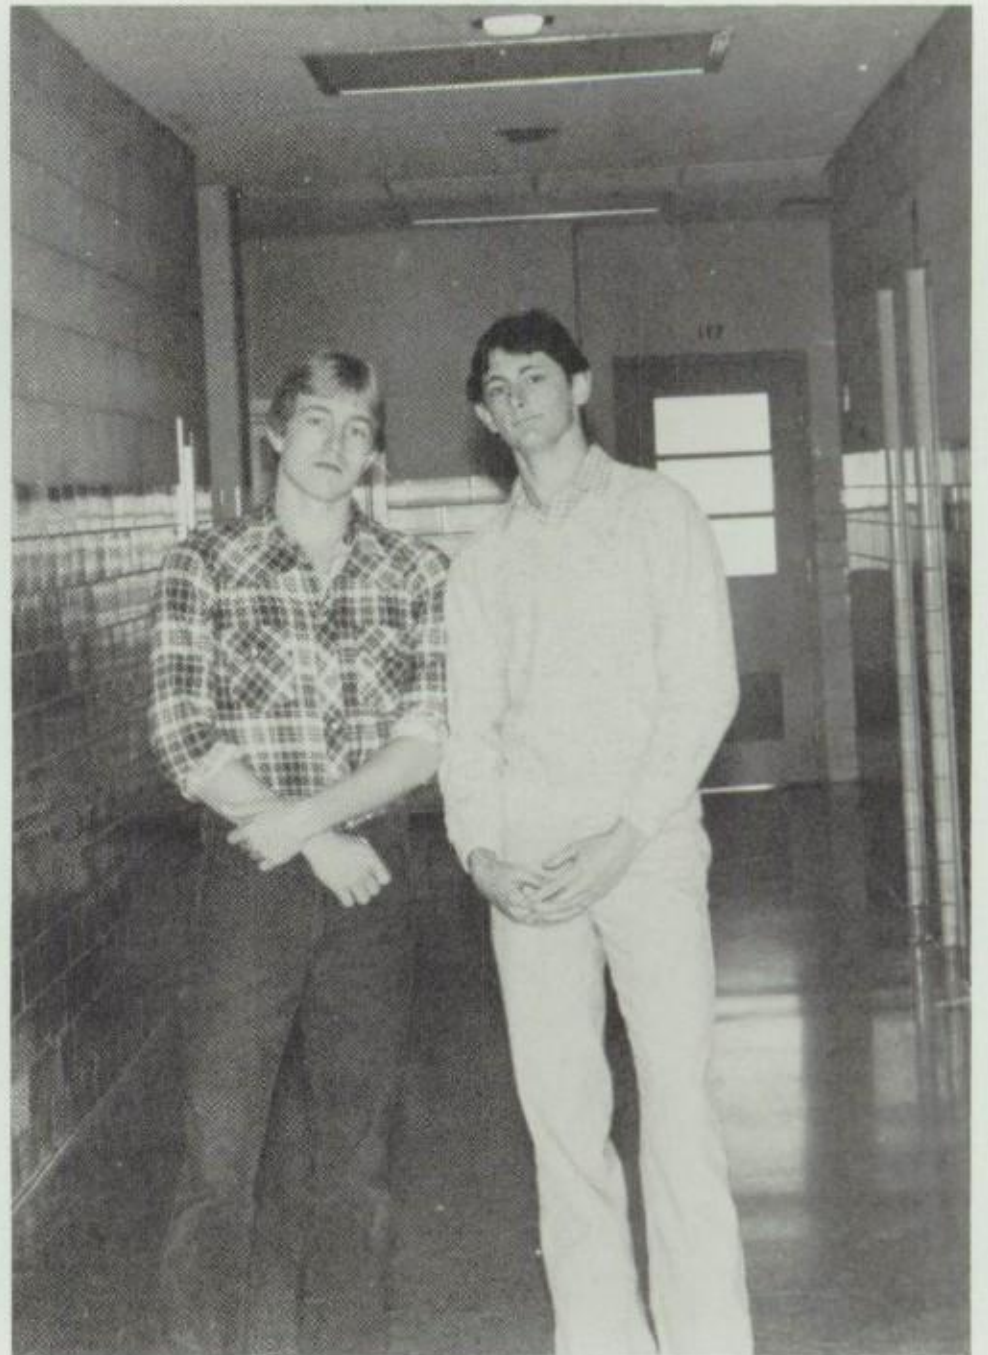

Hectic Schedules

Knights Receive Guidance

Guidance is a service provided that offers personal counseling, vocational information, testing and scheduling. Mr. Allan Eckelmann is the head of the guidance department, and Mr. Harold Brown assists.

Two organizations formed from the Guidance department were S.A.D.D., with Mr. Eckelmann as the advisor, and Peer Helping, with Mr. Eckelmann and Sr. Beth Kress as the advisors. Something new that was started this year was Project Talent Search. Representatives from the Talent Search Program at Iowa State University came to help counsel Seniors about their plans after high school.

Two Sides to the Story

It has been said before that there is too much 'love' shown on television, especially on the daytime soap operas. It seems that some of the more demonstrative ways of showing affection for the opposite sex have come to Newman. It is not uncommon to walk down the main hall to see two people in a "passionate" embrace, or in a "juicy" liplock. Some people turn their heads in disgust, many people look at the couple, wondering why they can't find a better place and time to do it.

When the couples are questioned as to why they do this in front of other people, they simply answer: "It doesn't matter what people think, all that's important is the fact that you are with the person that you want to be with."

Creative Arts Guild Has Active Year

The Creative Arts Guild is a group that has the purpose of promoting the arts at Newman.

They encourage people to attend and get involved in the various programs of the Creative Arts offered in school, such as, instrumental music, choral music, speech, creative writing and a general art program which includes painting, sculpting, and sketching.

This year's group put out the seventh issue of "The KnightWriters," a literary issue of poetry, art and photography produced by students and sometimes staff.

Two members, freshman Colleen Peterson, and sophomore Vicki Thul participated in the 1983 Catholic Daughters of America poetry competition and qualified for the state contest. Membership in the guild is open to all students and staff members.

Inner Space: Will Students See Need?

The Catholic Church believes and teaches the eternal presence of God in all creatures. The presence of Jesus Christ in the Sacrament of the Eucharist is a special presence of the Blessed Trinity which Catholics reverence particularly in times of devotional or communal prayer.

Times and places of conversation with the Lord are important in the healthy spiritual development of an adolescent. As a result, Newman High School offers an opportunity for such growth in the Inner Space program.

Inner Space is an experience for students and staff of the Newman family designed to help persons grow in their Christian commitment through prayer and sharing with another person on a spiritual level. Inner Space involves a commitment to daily scripture reading and private prayer, an effort to keep a journal of one's relationship with the Lord, a weekly or bi-weekly meeting with the spiritual adviser, (15 minutes), and an effort to attend Mass once a week besides on Sunday or Saturday. Inner Space is open to any student or staff.

The Newman Chapel is one location where a young person can commune with God or share God with another while on campus. Perhaps the emptiness of the chapel from period one to period seven this past year witnesses the need Newman students have for time to reflect and to learn the value of quiet and solitude in their lives. Although no students were guided through the Inner Space program this past year, students did meet with and visit with teachers, both lay and religious, to talk over personal needs. Will the Newman students recognize this need in their spiritual lives in the future? With the help of the staff, let's hope so.

"Come to me all you who labor and find life wearisome and I will refresh you." Matt. 11:28

F.B.L.A. Members Learn

Future Business Leaders of America (F.B.L.A.) is a non-profit, vocational education organization of students pursuing careers in business or business education.

The purpose of the organization is to give the student a chance to learn, first hand, about the business community.

The goals of the organization include: developing business leadership, establishing career goals, encouraging scholarships, and promoting efficient financial management.

Any student that is in at least one business course, or has had previous active involvement in F.B.L.A. with approval of the faculty advisor, is eligible for membership.

The Year's F.B.L.A. officers were: President — Julie McClung; Vice President — Terri Rottinghaus; Secretary/Reporter — Vicki Thul; Treasurer — Terry Boehmer.

F.B.L.A. members volunteered for such projects as typing Easter Seals envelopes, and working at KCMR radio station.

Members of the chapter participated in the State Contest. Vicki Thul placed first in Public Speaking at the State Conference and participated in the National Conference in San Francisco.

“Days of our Knights”

The 1982-83 “Knightlife” Staff was made up of 13 Senior students, their adviser, Sr. Beth Kress. The theme for the book is “Days of our Knights”. The co-editors for the “Knightlife” were Ann Poshusta and Julie McClung. Many long hours of hard work were put in by the staff members in order to meet the deadlines.

Members of all four classes helped the yearbook staff by taking pictures working in the darkroom, and selling ads.

RIGHT: Cindy Sturges was the recipient of the Letterwinners Club scholarship.

The Letterwinners Club is a group that is open to any student who has earned a varsity letter from Newman. The advisor for the club is Mr. Gary Nyhus. The purpose of this organization is to promote athletes at Newman and to provide students with the opportunity to be in a leadership position that will benefit the school.

There are no yearly dues, however, members are asked to sell their share in fund raisers that are held throughout the year.

This year's club held the annual popcorn sales. The popcorn came in 4 lb. bags and sold for $3.00 apiece.

The Letterwinners Club contributed to Newman in areas other than athletics, such as, getting trees for landscaping, lights for the Newman sign, paint and mirrors for the weight room, and headphones for the football staff. They also helped pay for a pep bus to the State Wrestling Tournament and other sporting events.

“Excellence” Evident in

ABOVE: Sr. Kevin indulges in the goodies served at the social held for the faculty in the library.

Membership in Newman's National Honor Society (NHS) is based upon excellence in four areas: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. A student must have a 3.2 cumulative average with no "D" grades and a conduct average above 85. The student must have membership in two school organizations and have held a major office in one.

Sr. Dennis is the advisor for the group. Members are selected after the first semester from the 10th, 11th and 12th grades. The entire faculty rates the eligible student on service, leadership, and character. Final selection is made by the NHS faculty council based on a percentage membership for each class.

An honor society member has a responsibility and an obligation to demonstrate the outstanding qualities of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. The year's officers were: President — Ann Poshusta; Vice President — Joellen Price; Secretary — Theresa Gribben; and Treasurer — Paul Rothamel.

The group put on a social in the school library on Dec. 16 for the faculty and staff. They served refreshments in a gesture of gratitude for all that they do. They held a dinner meeting to induct new members at the Sheraton Inn. The members also hosted a buffet dinner for the members of the Newman School Board, the Newman Foundation, and the officers of the Booster/Auxiliary.

The Pep Club is a group that is open to anyone in grades 9-12 who have an interest in raising school spirit. Mrs. Carlson, the advisor for the organization, gets the group together at the beginning of the year and they help the J.V. and Varsity cheerleaders make locker signs and posters for the athletic events throughout the year.

To raise money this year, the Pep Club sold sweaters, buttons, and mugs.

Pep Club members are encouraged to sit and yell together at athletic events to support the Knights.

The officers for this year's club were: President — Kim Shaffer, Vice-president — Toni Soli, and Sec/Treas. — Kathy Boyle.

Spiritual and Service Projects

The P.O.W. (Persons on Worship) is a student committee organized from the Religion Department. It meets monthly or oftener with the Religion Department staff to plan all-school liturgies, paraliturgies, prayer services, communal penance services, homeroom spiritual projects, all-school service projects, and renewal days.

The P.O.W. committee organized the canned food drive project. All of the classes collected food for a period of time. It was brought up as the offertory at the Thanksgiving Mass. The Junior Class collected the most food, and by doing so got to have their own grub day.

P.O.W. gives it's members the opportunity to experience participation and service within the Catholic/Christian community on the high school level.

Extra! Extra! Scribe improves

The 'SCRIBE', Newman's school newspaper, was put out bi-monthly by 15 members of the senior class, and their advisor, Sr. Beth.

Co-editors for the paper were Theresa Gribben, and Tim Lapointe.

The 1982-83 staff improved the appearance of the paper from other years by taking it to a professional printer instead of copying it themselves on the copy machine at school.

The 'SCRIBE' staff put in many long hours writing, editing, and typing their stories. Through all of their hard work, they came very close to meeting all of their deadlines, and the 'Scribe' was always out on time. Some member of the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes got some experience in working on the newspaper by writing stories for the 'SCRIBE'. By writing these stories, these people helped to make the jobs of the staff a little bit easier.

Student Council Contribute

The Student Council is an organization that provides a means of communication and understanding between students and faculty in all areas of school life. It provides an opportunity for students to participate in a representative form of government.

The goals of this year's Student Council were to have more social activities, to make enough money so activities will cost less or nothing in order to get more involvement, and to do things for the entire school, not just for the council.

The officers for the Student Council are: President — Teresa Fitzgerald; Vice President; Treasurer — Carolyn Taylor.

Student Council does many things throughout the year, such as planning homecoming and prom, organizing tape dances, and working in the concession stand. A new thing they tried this year was "Spirit Week," which was organized to raise school spirit during the winter sports' season.

Math Club Members Possess High Skills

Newman's Math Club is open to anyone in grades 9-12 who is interested in participating in math contests, and other math-related Activities. Mrs. Kathy Carlson is the advisor for the group. The students involved in Math Club must be strong in computation and problem-solving skills.

Members hold informal computer classes, they help teachers with CAI programs, they check papers, organize and host various contests and competitions at Newman, both for Newman students and students from other schools.

Students must maintain an A or B average in their math classes to be a member.

This year's officers were: President — Paul Nettleton; Vice-president — Teresa Fitzgerald; Secretary — Amy Samson; Computer Consultants — Dave Hutchison and Sharon Schneider.

Pupils Work Overtime

Many students at Newman have various part-time jobs. They use the money they earn for many different things.

Some people use their earnings to pay for their high school tuition, many are saving for future college tuition, some spend their money on clothing and weekend activities.

People who want to be involved in athletics or other activities can usually make arrangements to schedule their work around their events, although in some rare cases, a person must choose which they prefer to do.

Many people work during the summer detassling corn, walking beans, or doing some other type of summer job. Although these jobs are very hard and hot, they usually provide the worker with enough money to last throughout the year.

For most people, these part-time jobs offer a good learning experience for future jobs or careers.

The girls' summer softball team, with Ray Vega and Linnette Maguire coaching, had a very successful season this year. They finished 11th in the state tournament held in Fort Dodge. From this team, four girls were named to the All-Conference Big Marsh team, Mary Otten, Anne Otten, and Kathy Clapsaddle were 1st team selections. Traci Wentworth was named to the 2nd team.

This was the first time in Newman's history that the girls went to state. Some excellent averages were compiled over the season. Leading in batting averages are: Mary Otten .376, Anne Otten .351, Traci Wentworth .322, Cindy Sturges .306, and Kathy Clapsaddle at .300.

Mary Otten won 15 games as the leading pitcher, striking out 62 batters and establishing a 1.41 earned run average. The team ended with a 21-14 record.

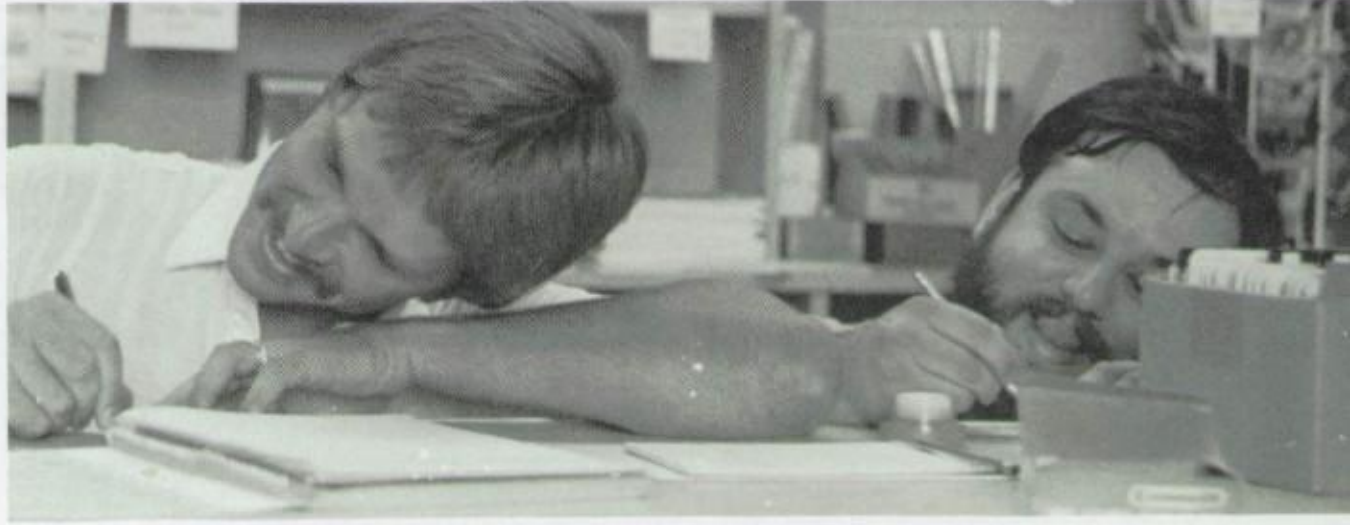

Registration Begins Year

One of the signs that summer is coming to a close, and the beginning of a new school year is upon us is Registration Day.

Newman's registration day for the 1982-83 school year was held on August 16. Members of the faculty worked throughout the day to register students for the coming year.

Students received their class schedules, bus passes, locker assignments, and insurance forms.

Tuition, which was set at $500. for the 1982-83 school year, was also paid at this time. At least half of the tuition payment was required on registration day. Some Newman families benefit greatly because of the tuition policy. The first two students pay full price, the third pays half-price, and the fourth goes free.

All-school Masses were held many times during the year at celebrative occasions or holy days. Feasts for school or Church community were Opening of the School Year, Homecoming, Thanksgiving, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, Ash Wednesday, Appreciation Day, and Graduation.

During the Thanksgiving Mass, canned food was collected from each class for the needy. The Junior Class collected the most cans with 255 cans. Their prize was a grub day and free admittance to one tape dance.

At the all-school liturgies Sr. Beth and the liturgical musicians, singers and guitarists, led the student body in the singing. As the year progressed, these musicians began to go outside Newman to lead singing such as for the Catholic Schools Week masses at St. Joseph's and Holy Family and for Fr. Schwartz's Silver Jubilee Mass in Rockwell.

Wellness Day Educates Newman

Wellness Day was held on March 9 for Newman students and staff. The program was designed to further explore the concept of "alternative highs" and offers informational sessions and talks on subjects such as nutrition, physical fitness, stress, smoking, getting high naturally, and self-responsibility. Students were given the choice of which session they wanted to attend.

The day began with a general assembly featuring Dr. Pablo Recinos, who addressed the audience on ways to be physically and emotionally healthy and to deal with stress.

The education dept. of Mercy Hospital, in conjunction with Drs. Pablo Recinos, Tim Thomsen, and Luis Garcia Coordinated the day.

LEFT: Mr. Dunn, and Mr. Nyhus watch the action as the film crew gets their equipment ready.

On Feb. 18, the Newman boys' varsity basketball team, cheerleaders, and fans starred in a commercial made by Barnes/West Productions for Farmers Grain and Livestock Company, (a commodity firm).

A 2,600 pound bull stood quietly under the basketball hoop as the basketball team was filmed shooting.

Although filming took over an hour, the fans cooperated fully by doing as the commercial makers asked, such as cheering very quietly, doing only the motions, and mouthing the cheers, or just being quiet when asked to do so. Newman has never had the opportunity to participate in something like this before. Everyone seemed to enjoy making the commercial, and it was handled well by all.

The Girls Fall Softball Team, coached by Ray Vega and Linette Maguire, lost only two players, Anne Otten and Theresa Borchardt, from the summer team.

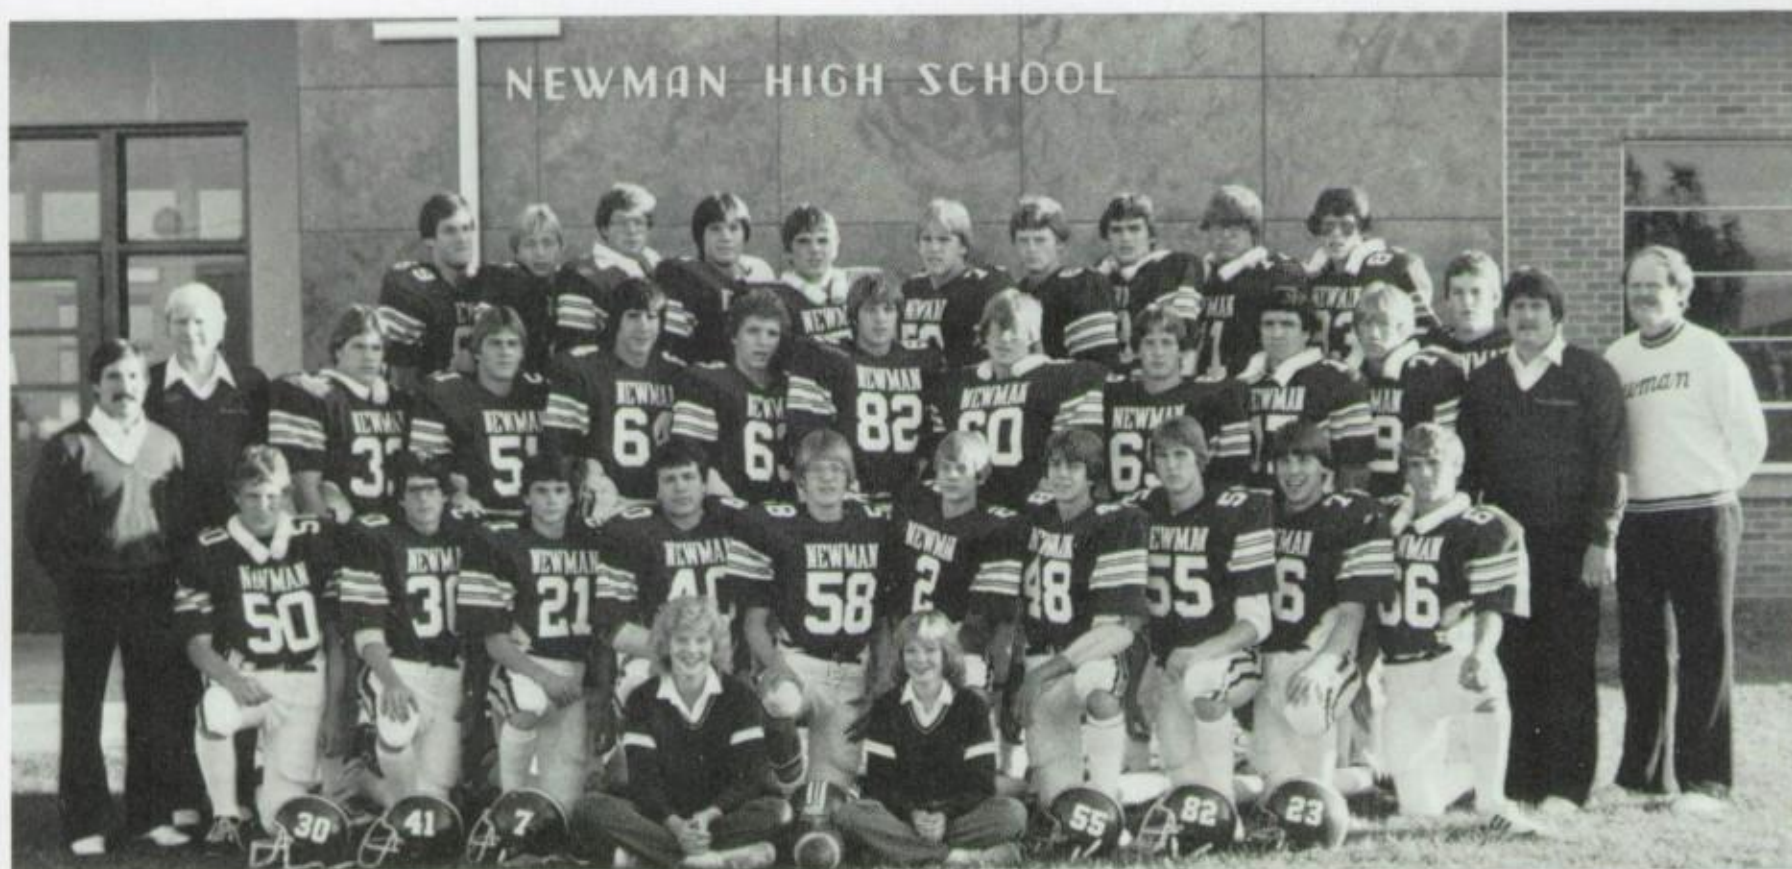

The Iowa High School Athletic Union ranked them 6th in the state.

Offensive power came from Traci Wentworth, Cindy Sturges, Kate Barr, and Mary Otten. Mary Otten and Kathy Clapsaddle shared the job of pitching and both did very well.

The team won the Merservey-Thorton Invitational and the Big Marsh Classic Conference Tournaments.

Mary Otten, Cindy Sturges, and Traci Wentworth received All-Conference awards.

The team began sectional play on Sept. 28, but were upset by Dumont.

Six Players Named All-Conference

This year's Varsity Football team, with Dennis Augustine as head coach, and Mark Bertsch, Tom Dunn, and Gary Nyhus assisting had the best record (6-3) in the 15 year history of Newman football.

Newman had six players named All-Conference this year. They were: seniors — Randy O'Connor, Mike Schlorholtz, Joe Determan, and Tom Doering; juniors — Terry Boehmer, and Kelly Phillips. Senior Tim Halloran received honorable mention, while senior Tim Scholl, and junior Brian Alman were credited special mention All-Conference.

School records were set by Terry Boehmer, who passed for a total of 1,140 yards and 12 touchdowns; Tim Scholl with a 93 yard interception run-back.

Tom Doering had 22 receptions for 274 yards, Joe Determan rushed for 815 yards, and Randy O'Connor had 84 tackles.

The Frosh-Soph team had a 3-4 record for the season. Sophomore Bill

The Newman Cross Country Team, coached by Craig Zoellner, returned only one letter winner from last year's team, which made this year somewhat of a rebuilding year. The varsity line up consisted of two freshmen, Bryan Taylor, and Mark Brumm, two sophomores, Victor Lopez, and Kevin McNulty, two juniors, Dave Stattelmann, and Jeff Thompson, and one senior, Kurt Brumm. The team also had a returning state place winner, junior Nancy Peterson.

Nancy was ranked throughout the season in the top five girl runners in the state. Her times were well under 12 minutes for the 2-mile race, and she either won or came in second in every race she competed in.

Jeff Thompson and Kurt Brumm led the Knights in the meets throughout the season.

On Oct. 21, Cross Country Districts were held in Waverly. Nancy Peterson once again qualified for State by placing 2nd with a time of 12:30.

The State meet was held on Oct. 30. Nancy captured the 1A State Championship with a time of 12:08. She finished 20 yards ahead of the second place finisher.

Nancy joined Rex Karamitros — 1976 State Cross Country Champion — as the second Newman student to win such a title.

Spirit Soars; Candidates Announced

Homecoming week started off with the Kick-Off breakfast on Tues. Sept. 28.

Tom Doering and Don Cahalan were the masters of ceremonies for the entire week's events.

Flowers were presented to the girls softball team, the cross-country team, and all of the coaches. Mr. Nyhus awarded the members of the summer softball team with their medals for participating in the state softball tournament this summer.

There was much anticipation and tension among the student body as they waited for what is always the biggest moment of the Kick-Off breakfast, the naming of the six Homecoming Queen candidates. They were not kept in suspense long, as Tom and Don humorously announced the six senior girls nominated for queen by the senior class. The candidates were Teresa Fitzgerald, Joellen Price, Kathy Clapsaddle, Carolyn Taylor, Cindy Sturges, and Lori Craven.

The four classes competed in competitions throughout the week. Tuesday was Sweat Suit and Hat day. Wednesday was Deck the Halls day, with decorations of Halloween, Easter, New Years, and the Fourth of July holidays. Thursday was designated as Punk-Rock day, but due to technicalities, it was not held. Friday was Dress-up Day for the all school Mass to which alumni, family and Newman friends were invited.

The Homecoming pep rally this year was called a "Wrectathalon." It was called this because the four classes competed in contests such as the Sandwich-Eating contest, the Baby-bottle contest, and the Ice Cream Cone contest.

There was much planning and preparation by the Student Council and the cheerleaders to make homecoming successful.

Mr. Augustine introduced his football players, and the varsity cheerleaders presented them with flowers.

The moment that everyone always waits anxiously for had finally come. The naming of the 1982 Homecoming Queen. As the queen candidates entered, the masters of ceremonies introduced them to the audience. When they were all finally seated, it was time to announce the queen and her runners-up.

Joellen Price, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Price was named the 2nd runner-up. Kathy Clapsaddle, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clapsaddle, was named the 1st runner-up.

The time finally arrived to announce our Homecoming Queen. It wasn't long before Cindy Sturges, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sturges, was seated in the queen's throne, and she was being crowned by the 1981 Homecoming Queen, Debbie Elbert.

Homecoming '82, A Shining Success

ABOVE: Sophomore Dan Baker, and freshman Tammy Thelen take a break to quench their thirst at the homecoming dance.

The 1982 Homecoming, with the theme, "The Best Yet" was one that will long be remembered by many.

Friday, the last day of homecoming week, started off with the traditional all-school Mass. The day proceeded with a lot of anticipation for the game that night against the Janesville Wildcats. The school's high spirits and the team's excellent performance led the Knights to a 20-0 victory over Janesville.

Many students and alumni celebrated the victory at the homecoming dance at the K.C. Hall with music provided by "Spectrum."

The 1982 Homecoming Queen, Cindy Sturges, reigned over all of Friday's events.

The success of the 1982 Homecoming, one of the biggest events in our school year, is definitely one we'll all remember.

The Music Department of Newman High School presented "H.M.S. Pinafore" on November 6 and 7 in the school gymnasium.

The story was about a young sailor named Ralph, (played by David Stattelmann), who falls in love with Josephine, (Kathy Clapsaddle), the Captain's daughter. They cannot show their love for each other because of the English class system.

Buttercup, (Teresa Fitzgerald), and the Captain, (Randy O'Connor), are also in love, but they are also separated by the class system.

The Newman band, directed by Mr. Chuck Cooper, provided the music for the presentation.

This year, Mr. Jeff Stearns, the vocal director, decided to put on an operetta instead of a musical, which is usually done. An operetta is different from a musical because the characters sing their lines. Stearns chose to do an operetta because it involves the entire choir.

"H.M.S. Pinafore" was written in 1878 by Gilbert and Sullivan, two of the most popular operetta writers in the history of the English theater.

Knights Warm Up to Spirit Week

Spirit Week was held from Jan. 24 to Jan. 28. The events that were held were meant to be like a "Winter Homecoming," to raise school spirit, and to raise the fan support at our athletic events.

Tuesday was designated as Red Day since there was a boys' and girls' varsity basketball game against Dumont that evening. Wednesday was White Day in honor of the wrestlers who met up with Forest City that night. There was a pep rally Thursday to spark enthusiasm for the weekend basketball games against Steamboat-Rock, and the Conference tournament at B.C.L. on Saturday.

Friday seemed to be the day everyone enjoyed the most, Hawaiian Grub Day. Many dressed in brightly colored blouses, some even dared to wear shorts, having to bear cool temperatures in the Newman hallways.

Hawaiian Grub Day was well accepted, as it brought a bit of sunshine to a cold dreary January day.

Catholic Schools Week was celebrated Jan. 30-Feb. 6.

On January 26, there was a Mass and breakfast for the Newman faculty members. Fr. James Duster, pastor of Clear Lake St. Patrick's, celebrated and homilized. He spoke about the U.S. Bishops' pastoral letter on war and peace and how Catholic schools can teach the ideas of peace and justice.

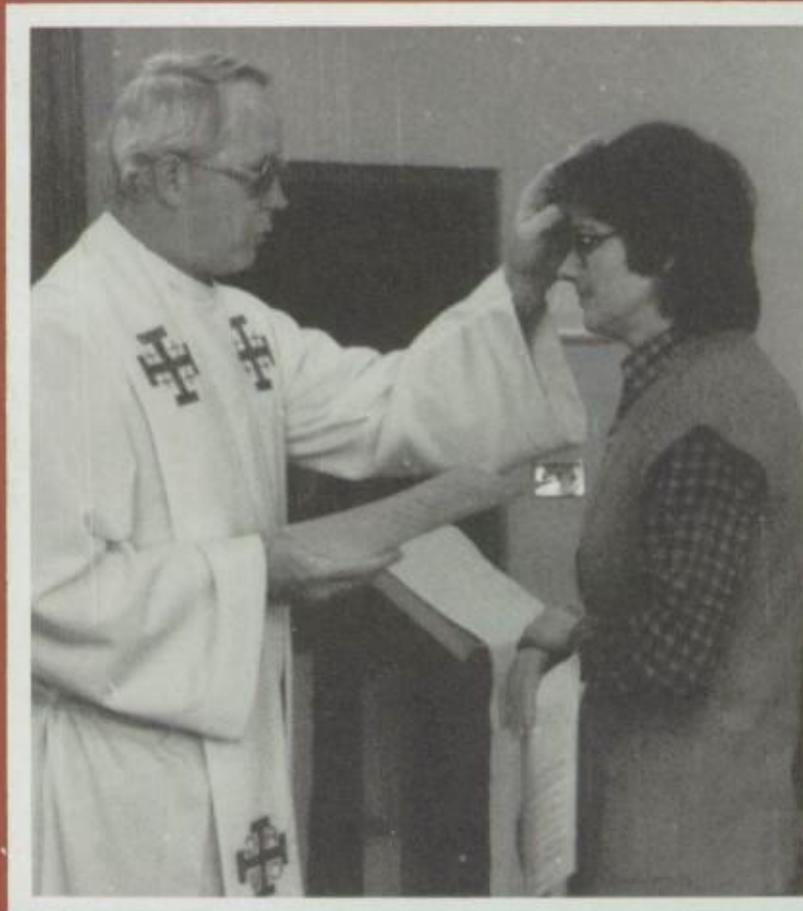

On Friday, Feb. 4, a formal convocation was held in the Newman gymnasium. Fr. Dennis Colter from Mount Mercy College in Cedar Rapids was to be the guest speaker, but due to the snowstorms we had been experiencing, he was unable to attend. Fr. Ressler stepped in for Fr. Colter and spoke to the audience saying, "Excellence must be our thrust." "Homework should be the rule, not the exception." Mason City's mayor, Ken Kew, gave the acknowledgement.

The students from Central Catholic were to be bused over, but due to the two previous snowdays, were kept in school.

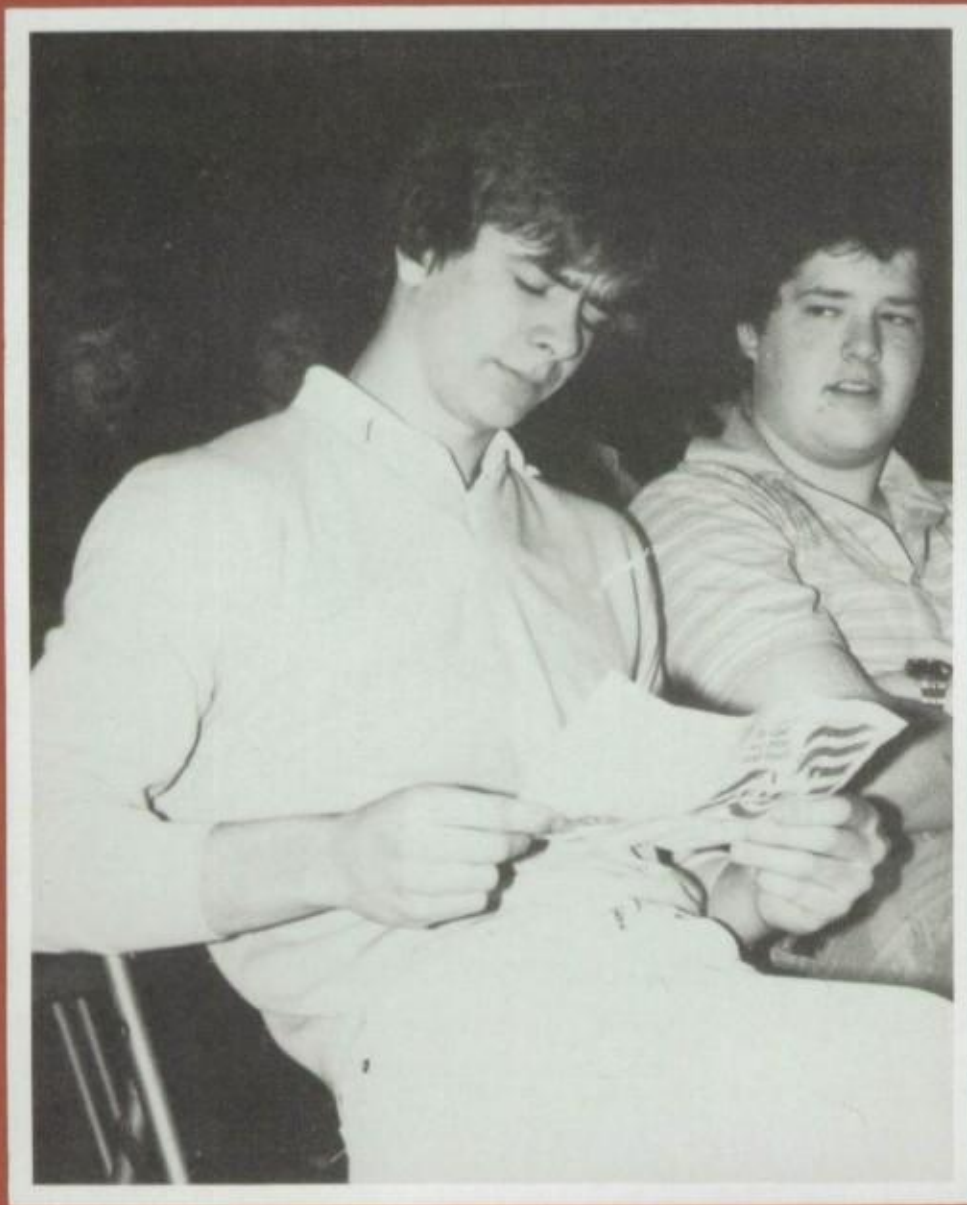

Archbishop James J. Byrne spoke to Holy Family parish on Jan. 30, and to St. Joseph's parish on Feb. 6, about the values and uniqueness of a Catholic education.

Fr. Ressler defines Catholic Schools Week as: "A national campaign that is set aside each year in which Catholic schools across the nation take a look at the uniqueness of Catholic Education."

The 1982-83 Girls' Varsity Basketball team returned a good number of past letterwinners to work with. Seniors Mary Otten, Kathy Clapsaddle, Jackie McAleer, Kate Barr, Cindy Sturges, and Carolyn Taylor; juniors Lynn Rohrer, Sharon Schneider, Angie Borchardt, Julie Fritz, and Lisa Hutchison; and sophomore Kathleen White led the team throughout the season.

The girls broke a school record — 17 wins in the regular season, 18 overall. With only 4 losses, the coaches, players, and student body were very proud of their team.

The girls won the Big Marsh Conference Tournament and tied for 2nd in the Big Marsh Conference race.

Newman won their first game in the Sectional Tournament, but were eliminated in the finals by Rockwell/Swaledale.

The freshman and JV team records were unavailable.

Marsh Conference Title

ABOVE: Joe Determan (50) waits to see if Scott Cahill's (24) attempt to score is successful.

ABOVE: The team members run through their pre-game warm up drills.

The 1982-83 Boys' Varsity Basketball team, coached by Mr. Peters and Mr. Martinek, ended their regular season with a 15-5 record — the second best in Newman history.

The boys held on to the Big Marsh Conference title for the fourth year in a row with a big 56-55 victory over Clarksville.

The boys received a bye for the 1st round, of Sectional play. In the second round, they were beaten by Riceville, the champions of the Corn Bowl Conference.

Dave Hutchison was honored by the GLOBE-GAZETTE by being named second team guard of the All-Area Team.

The freshman team, coached by Dean Schultz, had a record of 1-8.

The J.V. team, coached by Jerry Martinek, had a record of 4-5.

The Newman wrestlers had another excellent season, finishing with a 7-2 dual meet record. The Knights finished second in the conference race behind a strong Janesville team.

One of the most exciting wins of the year was a 31-26 victory over Clarksville. It avenged last year's 1 point loss and handed the Indians their first loss in 16 dual meets.

The Knights went into Sectional action on Feb. 12, at Nora Springs.

Five wrestlers advanced to the District meet also held at Nora Springs: Victor Lopez (105), Kurt Brumm (126), Jim Gribben (132), Bill Nettleton (145), and Jim Nettleton (Hwt.). Lopez, Gribben, and Bill Nettleton advanced to the State Tournament held at Des Moines.

Unfortunately, Gribben, and Nettleton were beaten in the first round, and were not able to wrestle back. Sophomore Victor Lopez made Newman very proud by placing third in the 1A School Division. This equals the best ever achieved by a Newman wrestler. Victor ended the season with a 24-4 record.

Freshman Bryan Taylor set a new freshman record — 21 wins, 6 losses, 1 tie; other standouts were senior Mike Schlorholtz with 17 wins, 7 losses, 1 tie.

Speech Work Pays Off

Mrs. Dianne Stoltenberg, the advisor for speech students, worked very hard this year and her efforts definitely paid off by sending ten Newman students to the State Individual Speech Contest in Oelwein on March 19th.

At the contest, Teresa Fitzgerald and Julie McClung received I's in Public Address, Patty Vollinger and Amy Samson — I's in Story Telling, Margaret Shannon — I in Prose, Rene Recinos — II in Improvisation, Michelle Nettleton — II in Literary Prose, Ann Poshusta — II in Book Review, Kathy Boyle — II in Radio News Broadcasting, and LuAnn Gebel — II in Prose.

Also, on Feb. 5, Tim Lapointe and Terri Rottinghaus went to West Union to compete in the State Large Group Speech Contest. They earned I ratings for their performance in duet acting. They used three scenes from "The Rainmaker" as their entry.

Spanish Students Tour Mexico

ABOVE: Shown are the students that participated in the Mexico trip which lasted from March 30 until April 8.

Thirteen Spanish students from Newman and one from Rockford were fortunate enough to be able to spend their spring break in Mexico.

The students who participated in the trip were David Hutchison, Angie Borchardt, Jim Goranson, Amy Samson, Tim Steinauer, Julie McClung, Julie Fritz, Tim Otten, Molly Gailey, Mark Vega, Bob Halloran, Sharon Schneider, Kevin Schleuter, and Jeff Barrett from Rockford. Their chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vega, and Mrs. Bonnie Fritz.

They toured the major cities of Guernavaca, Taxco, Acapulco, and Mexico City. Among the sites on the tour were the pyramids of the sun and moon, Our Lady of Guadalupe shrine, beaches, and open air markets.

The trip lasted from March 30 — April 8.

Tape Dance Hours Become Controversial

Newman's student council put on four tape dances this year. All of the proceeds from the admission cost go to the Student Council.

One of the successful dances of the year was one in which the band 'Errow' from Algona was hired.

A controversial issue arose this past year concerning tape dances. It was the question of tape dance hours, which were to be changed this year to 8:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. They were formerly held from 9:00 p.m. to 12:00 p.m. Fr. Ressler felt parents would like to see their children home earlier than midnight, especially the underclassmen. The students felt the dances should be held from 9:00 p.m. to 12:00 p.m. because many people have jobs that keep them from getting to the dance until late. The problem was never really solved, but each dance had different hours due to events that were held prior to the dances on several occasions.

Tape dances are one of the social events that the whole student body can participate in throughout the year. Most people that attend the dances find that they are very enjoyable.

18 senior students participated in T.E.C., (Teens Encounter Christ), this year. The locations of the T.E.C.'s were Dyersville, Waterloo, Gilbertville — Don Bosco, Marshalltown, Bellevue, New Hampton, Dubuque, and Eagle Grove.

Two or three seniors can sign up for the program and go to one of these places for one weekend, which can be described as a renewal experience, and a time to become more in touch with God and yourself.

Sr. Beth is in charge of arranging for Newman students to go to these T.E.C.'s.

Classes Encounter Renewals

Each of the four classes experienced a class renewal, held on one school day this year.

The Freshman Class had the last renewal of the year on May 10. It was held at Sacred Heart in Rockwell. The theme was "Initiation into the Community."

The Sophomore renewal, January 31 was also held at Rockwell. The theme was "Appreciation of the Eucharist." The class decided on many ideas to build relationships with their classmates and with God.

The Juniors held their renewal at the Catholic Community Center in Nora Springs. It was held on March 14 with a theme of the moral issues surrounding the abuse of alcohol and other drugs.

The Seniors had their renewal at Rockwell on November 15. The theme focused on class unity and emphasized the strengths and weaknesses of the class. From the renewal they planned a non-alcoholic class party.

ABOVE: Sophomore, Dana Olson, participated in Mason City's swimming program on the basis of the new ruling called the "sharing program."

There were two new sports activities started at Newman this year. One was the Girls' Swimming Program. The Mason City School Board, at the request of the Newman School Board, petitioned the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union for permission to enter a program of shared activities in swimming for this year. As a result of this, Newman's Dana Olson, a sophomore, was allowed to swim on Mason City's team.

Another new sports team this year, was the bowling team, organized by Mr. Gary Nyhus.

On Nov. 13, Newman sent three teams, (one girls' team and two boys' teams), to the district tournament in Forest City. After qualifying rounds on Nov. 20, Newman was informed that the team of Tim Fausnaugh, Tim Steinauer, Don Cahalan, Kevin Dusold, and Mark Baker won the District Championship.

On Dec. 11, this team went to Des Moines for the State Tournament. Tim Fausnaugh led the team with a 515 series, and a high game of 184.

The girls' tennis team, coached by Miss Patty Yount, had their number 1 and 2 players, Kathleen White, and Susan Cory, back from the 1982 team.

Julie McClung and Amy Samson, 1982 letterwinners, also returned this year.

These four, plus the J.V. players and incoming freshmen made for a very optimistic season.

The team finished with a record of 4-7.

In the Sectional tournament, the doubles team of Kathleen White and Susan Cory won the tournament. They played against Central of Waterloo in the District Tournament and were defeated, finishing 3rd after defeating Clear Lake.

The team won 2nd place in the Sectional Tournament, something new for the team.

This year's letterwinners were Susan Cory, Kathleen White, Julie McClung, Amy Samson, Toni Soli, Ann Poshusta, Joellen Price, and Kathy Boyle.

Experience Leads Boys to State Meet

The 1983 boys golf team, coached by Mr. Dave Peters, had every member of the 1982 team back.

They had 6 letterwinners return from the team that placed 3rd in the District meet last year. The letterwinners were: Don Cahalan, Tim Scholl, Tom Doering, Bill Nettleton, Dave Hutchison, and Terry Nierengarten.

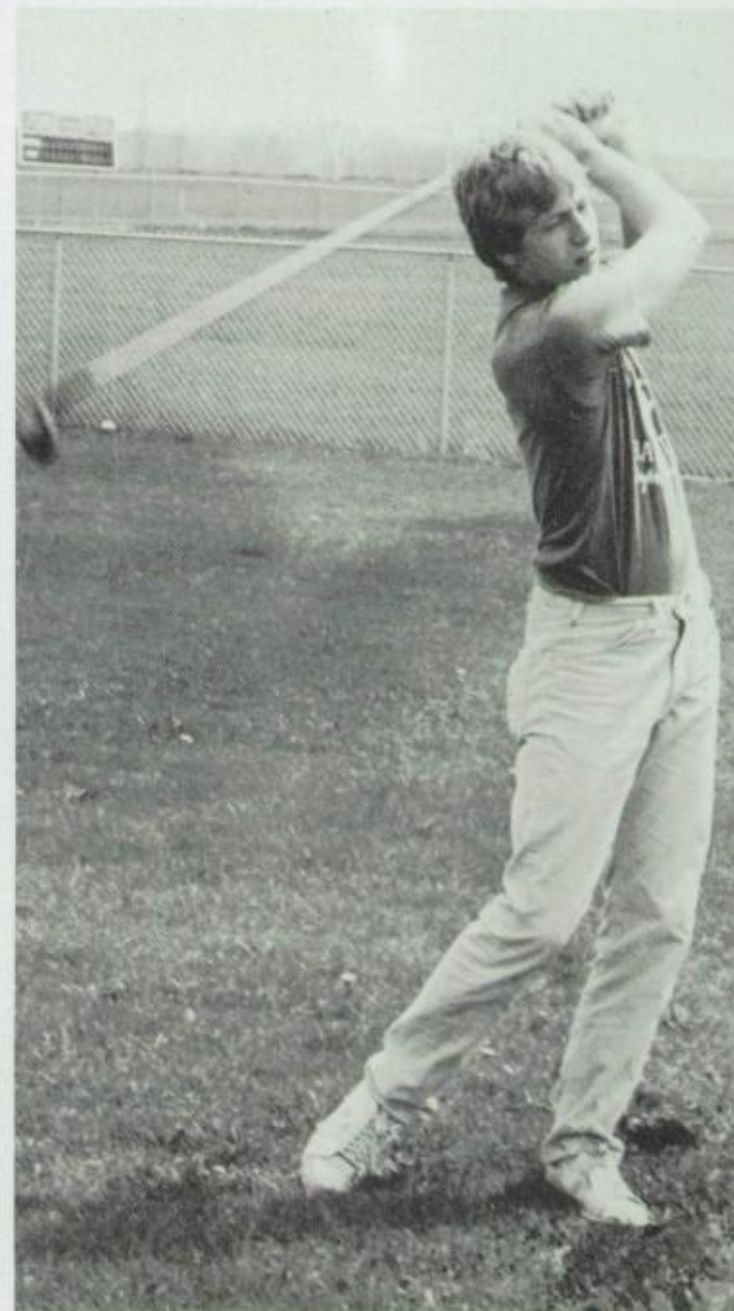

The boys had a very successful season, losing only one meet to Mason City.

The team won their Sectional and District meets, which qualified them for the State meet in Iowa City on May 27 and May 28.

Newman which was in fourth place after first round action, got an 83-77-160 from Dave Hutchison, 83-85-169 from Bill Nettleton, 85-88-173 from Don Cahalan, and 87-86-173 from Tim Scholl. The boys finished 4th in class 2-A. Dave Hutchison tied for 7th place individually.

The girls golf team, coached by Mr. Tom Neibauer and Miss Linnette Maguire, had a very good year, winning all of their dual meets except one, which was lost to city rival, Mason City. The Knights went undefeated in class 1-A competition.

The girls won the Sectional Tournament at Lake Mills for the second year in a row.

They went into Regional action on May 24 at Tripoli. They placed 3rd, coming very close to a trip to the state meet.

Underclassmen Dominate

The girls track team, coached by Mr. Ray Vega, had a team made up of 20 girls. With only two seniors, the team was dominated by underclassmen.

The team placed 1st in the Sheffield/Chapin Relays, and placed high in the Belmond, Ventura, and Parkersburg Relays. The team also finished 2nd in the Big Marsh Conference Relays.

Nancy Peterson, stand-out runner, once again qualified for the State Track meet held in Des Moines. She placed 2nd in the class 1-A 3,000 yard run, with a time of 11:01. Nancy also qualified for State meet in the 800 yard run.

Track Team Lacks Size

The Newman boys' track team was made up of only 17 members this year.

The team was a very young one with only one senior, distance runner Doug Chodur.

Coaching of the track team changed hands from last years coaches, Mr. Mark Bertsch, and Mr. Tom Dunn, to this year's Mr. Craig Zoellner.

With only two returning letterwinners, the key to this year's team was continuous improvement.

Although the team didn't win any meets this year, the prospects for next year's team look very promising.

Newman Serves the Community

Newman's Service Day to the community organized by Mrs. Lynn Petersen, was held on April 25.

The day began with a prayer service conducted by Fr. Phillip Thompson in the cafeteria.

There were 20 different work assignments in the areas of Mason City, Manly, Rockwell, and Clear Lake. Many people helped the elderly with yard work, and washing windows. Other people worked at the I.O.O.F. Home, Americana Nursing Home, Good Shepherd, The County Care Facility, and Handicapp Village. New places that students went were KCMR radio station, and Hawkeye Harvest Food Bank.

Faculty members accompanied the groups of students to their designated places.

A new service Newman provided this year was the Community Kitchen, organized by Mrs. Petersen. Students and staff members assisted Mrs. Petersen by making and serving the food to the needy.

Students Awarded for Excellence

Joellen Price; (shown left and above), has made many accomplishments in her high school career. She participated in the UNI Science Symposium Scholarship Exam, and was awarded the Baush & Lomb Honorary Science Award.

For her research with fruit flies, Joellen received the following awards: Iowa Junior Science and Humanities Symposium — University of Iowa, Iowa City; Iowa Junior Academy of Science — Luther College, Decorah; National Junior Science and Humanities Symposium — West Point Military Academy, New York; National Youth Science Camp — Des Moines, presented by Gov. Terry Branstad.

BELOW: Jeannette Mackey, a talented musician, was the winner of the John Philip Sousa Award.

The students that were awarded at the awards assembly for outstanding work in an area are as follows: Especially honored in Art: Dean Mackey; Outstanding work in Accounting: Julie McClung; 1983 Journalist of the Year: Traci Wentworth; 1983 Outstanding Yearbook Staff Member: Kathy Clapsaddle; Excellence in Creative Arts: Renee Bartell, Michele Boehmer; "A" Average in 5 years of Math: Joellen Price; National School Choral Award: Tim Lapointe; American Choral Directors Award: Kathy Clapsaddle; John Philip Sousa Band Award: Jeannette Mackey; Service Award: Julie McClung, Lisa Craven, Jeff Ebeling, and Patty Voellinger; Liturgical Musicians: Tim Lapointe, Darla O'Connor, and Terri Shields; Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award: Joellen Price; Outstanding Iowa High School Speaker: Teresa Fitzgerald.

These are just a few of the awards and achievements of students at Newman.

300 Attend Athletic Banquet

The annual Spring Sports Banquet, May 12, organized by Mr. Gary Nyhus, Athletic Director, was at the KC Hall this year.

A crowd of 300 athletes and parents of athletes attended.

The Master of Ceremonies for the evening was KGLO Sportscaster, Tim Fleming.

The featured speaker, Dolph Pulliam, talked to the crowd about his experiences as a Final-four Basketball player for Drake. He emphasized the importance of having lofty goals, and the need for strong family ties to be successful in life.

The highlight of the evening's events was the awarding of the Al Connor's All Sports Awards, (awarded to one senior boy and one senior girl). The award is based on participation and team leadership in varsity athletics, scholarship in the classroom, and participation in physical education. Randy O'Connor and Mary Otten were the 1983 winners of the awards.

ABOVE: Kathy Boyle, Greg Hodak, and Theresa Tribben paste paper on Jenny Mackey in the Sculpture Competition.

On May 17, a new tradition began with a Senior Night where the members of the Senior Class gathered together for one last time.

36 of the 50 seniors and 9 faculty members turned out for the event.

The night included competition, challenge, remembering, prayer, and eating together.

Speakers for the evening were Tom Lapointe, Theresa Gribben, Traci Wentworth, Mr. Dave Peters, Mr. Ray Vega, and Sr. Dennis.

The night ended with the box lunch social in which boxes of food prepared by the girls were auctioned off by the boys. $100 was made from this event, and was sent to the Community Kitchen of Mason City.

This night gave the seniors the opportunity to take time out of the hectic days before graduation to share the friendships they have made over the years.

Awards are Presented at Assembly

The Awards Assembly was held on May 20, in the Newman gymnasium.

Members of the faculty presented awards to students in many academic areas.

The order of events was as follows: The processional, with music by the Concert Band, to which the graduating class marched in; the opening prayer by Rev. Philip Thompson; the First Reading by Teresa Fitzgerald; the Responsorial Psalm by Paul Rothamel; the Gospel reading and Comments by Fr. Thompson; the Presentation of Awards by Department Heads; and a final reflection in which Kelly Phillips read the poem "The Road Not Taken" by Robert Frost.

The ceremony ended with the recessional.

The day began with the Baccalaureate Mass organized by a Senior Mass Planning Committee whose moderator was Sr. Beth Kress.

A graduation brunch for the seniors and their parents followed the Mass.

Commencement began at 1:30. The invocation was given by Terri Rottinghaus; the Commencement Address was given by former Newman Principal, Rev. Kenneth Gehling; awards and diplomas were given by Newman Board of Education President, Leo Stattelmann; Principal, Rev. Wayne Ressler; Sister Mary Dennis; and Mr. Dennis Augustine; Thanks from the Class of 1983 was given by Tim Lapointe; the Benediction was given by Teresa Fitzgerald; Tom Doering was the Master of Ceremonies.

Many scholarships were given to the seniors. The Valedictorian of the Class was Ann Poshusta; the Salutatorian was Teresa Fitzgerald.

Boosters Support Newman Activities

Newman's Booster Club is an organization that works throughout the year to raise money to support the many activities at Newman.

The officers for the 1982-83 Booster Club were: President — Dick Logan, Vice-President — Agnes Thul, Secretary — Kate Osterman, and Treasurer — Bonnie Fritz.

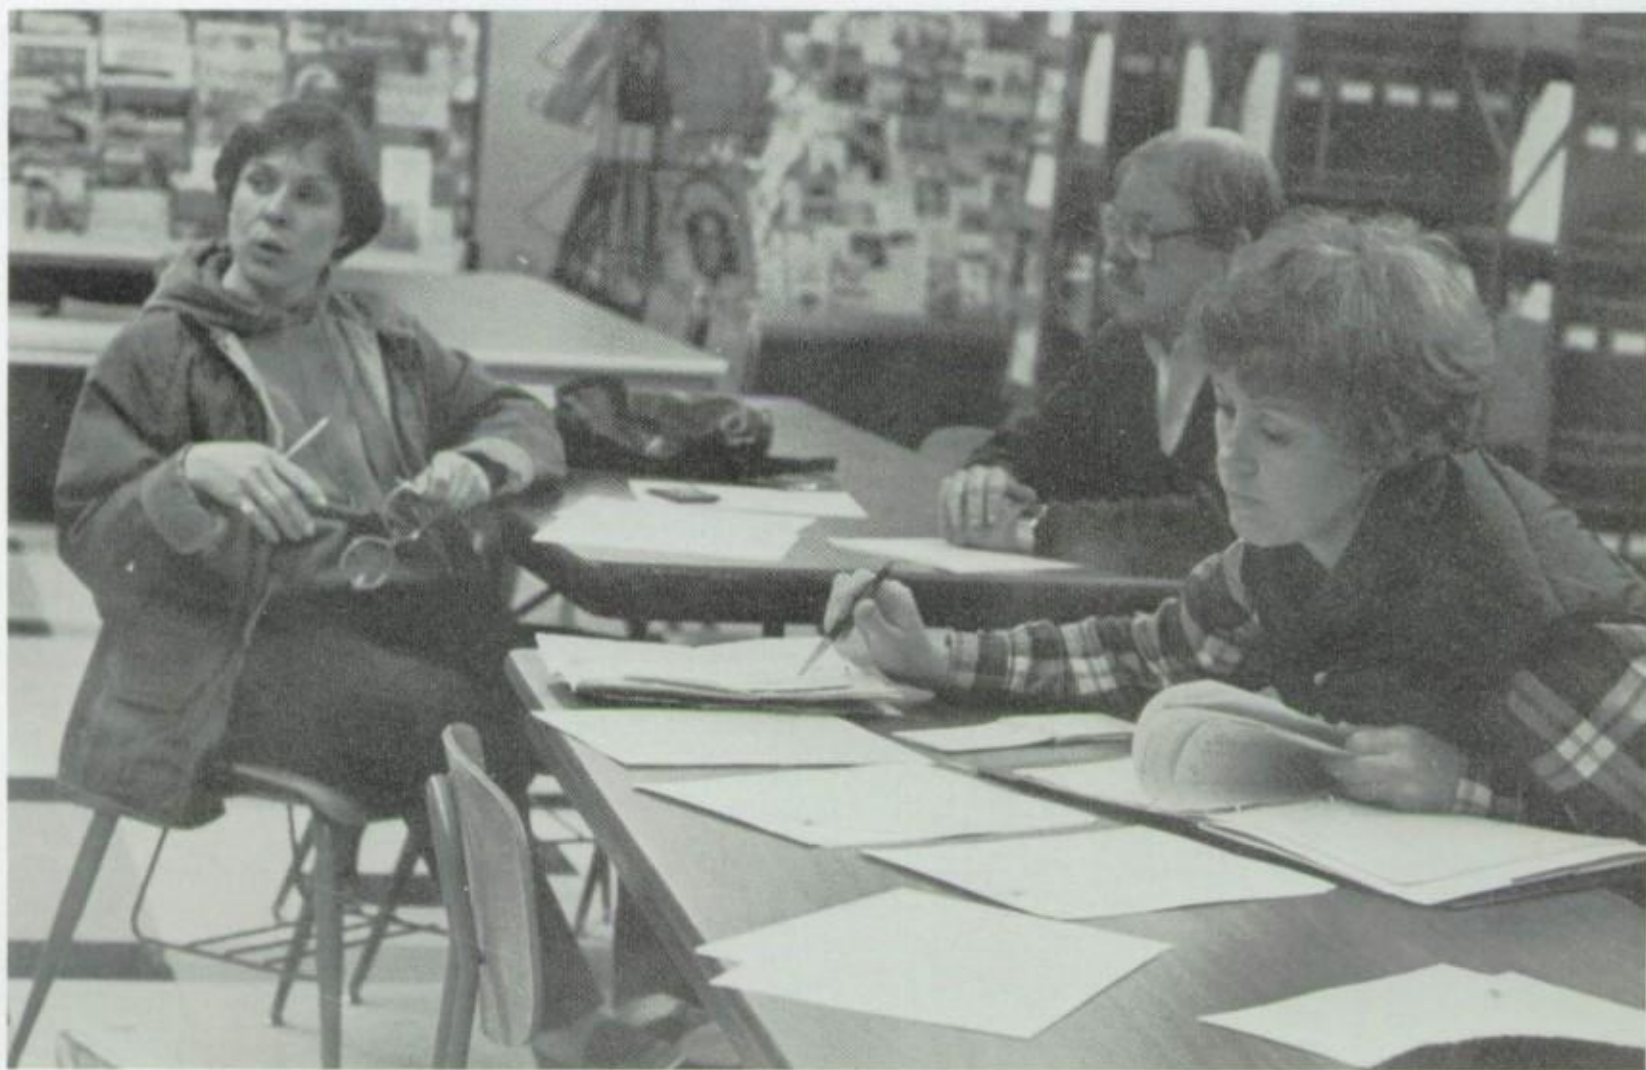

All parents of Newman students are automatically members of the Booster Club.

The club put on many events this year to raise money. Some of these activities were a pork roast, the Spaghetti Supper, many paper drives held at local shopping center parking lots, Sunday night bingo, the sweet corn sale, property rental, raffles, the Newman Style Show, and the Golf Open held at the Mason City Country Club.

The Newman athletic program has greatly benefitted from the help and hard work put in by the members of the Booster Club.

The graduating class of 1983 is one that has undergone many experiences, both good and bad, over the past four years. They have had to deal with many changes due to new teachers, a new principal, and new rules.

This year, the senior renewal was held in November at Sacred Heart in Rockwell. At the renewal, the class decided to try to work together to become closer as a class and to be more supportive of other class members. One thing that was decided at the renewal, was to have a non-alcoholic senior party. A planning committee was formed and the party was held on December 23, at the DeFord home. The seniors played cherades, twister, pool, and lap sit. Many people didn't participate in the games, but chose to indulge in the good food that was served.

BELOW: "I got it!" Dave Stattelmann leaps to catch the football, as Jeff Thompson stumbles behind him.

The class of 1984 was the largest class at Newman this year, with 59 members. The junior student council representatives are: President — Kathy Greenlee; representatives — Angie Borchardt, Dave Hutchison, Kelly Phillips, and Lynn Rohrer.

The group has shown strong talents in the areas of music, sports, and academics. Junior students have participated in music festivals, speech contests, math contests, science contests, and many other events in which they were successful.

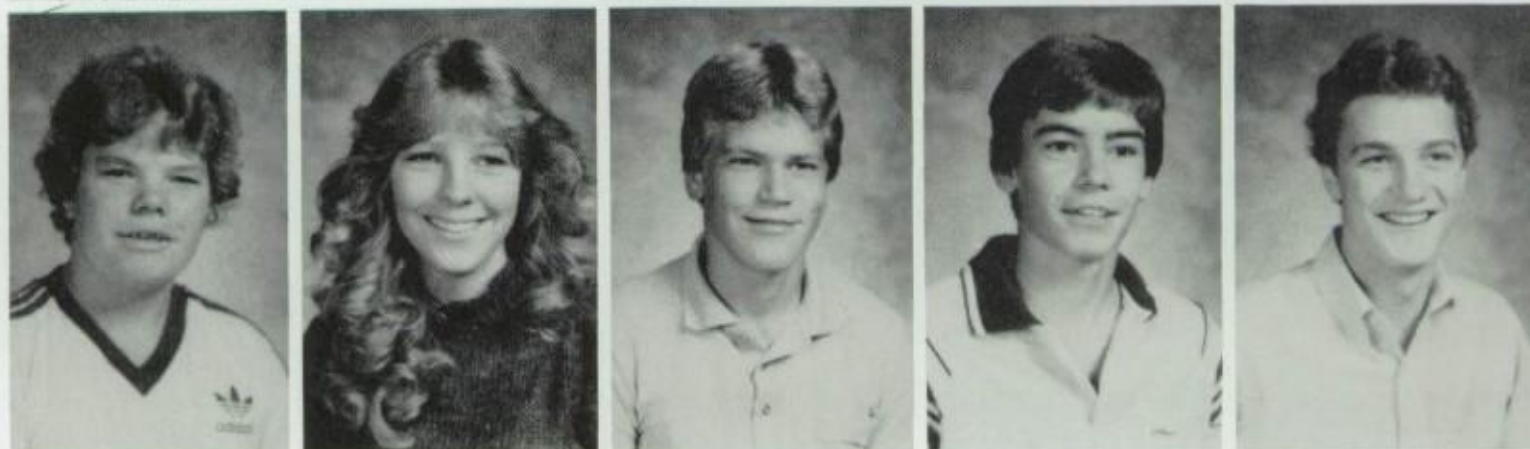

In this junior class, you will find no two people with the very same interests, opinions, talents, or ideas. Because of this, the class of '84 benefits greatly, and should have a very successful senior year.

The Sophomore class is a group that has shown very much potential in areas such as choir, band, speech, and athletics.

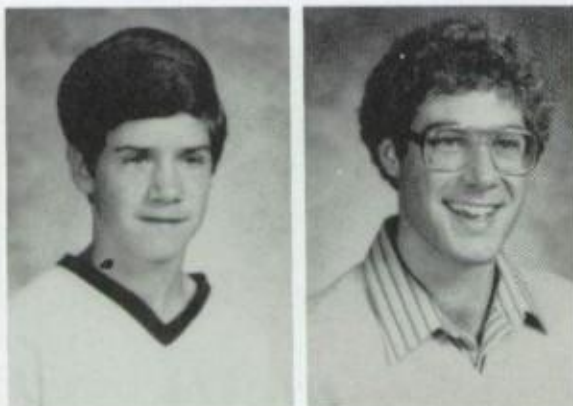

The class leaders are: president, Vicki Thul; representatives, Renee Bartell, Scott Cahill, Pam Arnold, and Brian Logan.

As a class, the sophomores held a renewal on Jan. 31, at Sacred Heart in Rockwell. The theme was "The Eucharist", and was described as being one of the better renewals of the year.

Our Days Come To An End

We, the Knightlife staff, hope that we have succeeded in the task of bringing memories of the 1982-83 school year to you as accurately as possible.

We have tried to do our best to collect photos and gather information about as many of the events that occur in the days and nights at Newman High School as we could.

We hope that you will enjoy this book as much as our staff has enjoyed working together to put it together.

We would like to extend a special thank you to Dave Garrett, Mrs. Carlson, and the Globe-Gazette for providing us with many photos. Thank you also to the professional photographers for the class photos.

ABOVE: The empty halls and vacant lockers tell us that another school year has come to an end.
